Director, Childcare Branch Director, Jon Cicirelli and Interim Division Manager, Childcare Branch Assistant Director, Hal Spangenberg offered the presentation and responded to questions.

Public Comment: Wendy Mahaney-Gurahoo, Interim Chief of Early Learning at FIRST 5 Santa Clara; Maria Padilla, Sylvia Alvernaz, Melissa Hong, Director of FIRST 5; Delana Hughes, Mathew Tinsley, Amanda Dickey, Blair Beekman, Kathleen King, Yadira, Veronica, Anarita Reyes, Adaline Hernandez, Paul Soto, and Caller '5140' offered public comment regarding the item.

Action: Upon motion by Councilmember Sylvia Arenas, seconded by Councilmember Maya Esparza and carried unanimously, the verbal report on childcare and the Cities COVID-19 response was accepted. Including the acceptance of the memorandum from Councilmember Sylvia Arenas, dated February 2, 2021, directing the City Manager to: (1) Continue to prioritize learning pod and other childcare community solutions throughout the COVID crisis, including prioritizing these programs for additional local assistance relief funding that comes out of new federal legislation. (2) Create a referral process for isolation assistance and homelessness prevention whenever any learning pod participant or family is exposed to COVID. (3) Quickly reopen the Recreation Leader position to allow for sufficient staffing availability for the learning pod programs through the end of this fiscal year. (4) Directly coordinate with school districts – both 1-on-1 and through the Schools City Collaborative – to request that each school district currently referring children to a City of San Jose learning pod also provide PRNS with at least one resource specialist (educational) who can provide support for the high needs children we're serving. (5) Produce a Manager's Budget Addendum that presents options to create full time position classifications for preschool – as has previously been developed by PRNS – and also present options to create a full-time classification to support other educational roles within PRNS's recreation programs, such as learning pods. (6) Inform council offices of open preschool and learning pod slots available to students in their districts at the beginning of each session – and request that each council member commit to designate a staff member in each of our offices to support the referral process to fill these slots with qualifying children. During the discussion and clarification by Nora Frimann the City Attorney, Councilmember Foley and Vice Mayor Jones discovered unforeseen financial interests and needed to recuse themselves after the initial motion due to a conflict of interest. Jones' amendment was removed from the motion.

Friendly Amendment: Councilmember David Cohen proposed a friendly amendment to allow flexibility on full-time and part-time employee compensation of bonuses verses actual salary/hourly pay in terms of hazard pay, and an ordinance to be crafted with an exemption for franchisee and publicly traded small businesses. The friendly amendment was accepted by the maker of the motion and seconder.

Friendly Amendment: Councilmember Matt Mahan proposed a friendly amendment to direct City Administration to provide a high-level response on the ordinance's potential impacts based on available research and analysis including: (a) Impacts to other cities who have adopted a similar ordinance. (b) Increased cost to customers. (c) Business employment reductions and eliminations. (d) Modification of retailer inventory mix to avoid being included in the proposed ordinance and include looking at COVID rates for retail workers. The friendly amendment failed for a lack of a second.

Action: On a call for the question, the motion carried, including Councilmember Cohen's friendly amendment, with additional direction for staff to return with an urgency ordinance and a regular ordinance at the next City Council meeting. Including the acceptance of the memorandum from Councilmember Sergio Jimenez, dated February 2, 2021, recommending to: (1) Decline to accept the memo from Mayor Liccardo dated February 1, 2021, and the memo from Vice Mayor Jones dated February 2, 2021; (2) Direct the City Attorney to draft an urgency (Item Continued on the Next Page)
