CHALLENGES

- SAIU, SVU, and FVU rely on Crime and Intel Data to make sound decisions provided by one (1) Crime and Intelligence Analyst. The same analyst leads the Vigilant Parent Initiative Trainings and supports the department's other needs as well.
- Educating those who live in areas prone to Sexual Assault relies heavily upon the Crime Prevention Unit.
- Disparity and underreporting in the Asian Community

MOVING FORWARD

- Increase capacity in the area of Crime and Intelligence Data Analytics as resources allow
- Increase capacity in the area of Prevention and Intervention services as resources allow
- Work more closely with all ethnic-based agencies (Emphasizing Asian Service Providers)

TRENDS AND PATTERNS WITH ONLINE DISTANCED LEARNING

IMPROVING SERVICES TO VICTIMS

- Enhancing Proactivity
- Intersectionality Between Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Human Trafficking
- Aligning Best Practices
- Community Education and Outreach
  - Virtual Classes
  - Social Media Outreach Campaigns
- Vigilant Parent Initiative

CHALLENGES

- Recent crime trends are increasing SVU's workload
- The increase in Cyber Tips is indicative of the growth of Child Sexual Abuse Material (CSAM) and every report of CSAM must be investigated
- Hundreds of escort and massage parlor ads per week in San Jose combined with under-reporting in the API community
- Complex Human Trafficking cases require volumes of work and investigators are hindered from having enough time to conduct proactive investigations, outreach and provide timely data sharing with CBOs

MOVING FORWARD

- Build capacity of the Crime Prevention Unit to conduct education and outreach activities in conjunction with the Vigilant Parent Initiative, as resources allow
- Increase Forensic Analyst Staff capacity to carry out complex tracking of money tied to human trafficking, the continual Vigilant Parent Initiative curriculum updates, and assist with continual data sharing with CBOs, as resources allow
