Section 6. Mutual Indemnification

A. To fullest extent permitted by California law, each Party shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the other Party, its respective agents, representatives, officers, consultants, employees, trustees, and volunteers ("Indemnified Parties") from any and all losses, liabilities, claims, suits, and actions of any kind, nature, and description, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and costs (collectively "Claims"), directly or indirectly arising out of, on account of, connected with, or resulting from, the operation, condition, use or occupancy of Theaters, with the exception of any Claims caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Parties; and in case any action or proceeding be brought against the Indemnified Parties, the other Party shall defend the Indemnified Parties at that Party's sole expense.

Section 7. Dispute Resolution

A. Except for the notice and cure provisions herein, failure or delay by either Party to perform any material term or provision of this Agreement constitutes a breach ("Breach") under this Agreement. The party who commits a Breach shall promptly commence to cure, correct or remedy such Breach and shall complete such cure, correction or remedy with reasonable diligence, and during any cure period shall not be in default of this Agreement.

B. This Agreement requires that the Parties work together in good faith to achieve the purpose and objective of this Agreement. In the event that a dispute arises as to the proper interpretation of the respective rights and responsibilities of the Parties under this Agreement, or as to any other aspect of this Agreement, the Parties agree that they each will assign the appropriate individuals to meet and make good faith efforts to negotiate in order to arrive at a resolution of the dispute. The informal dispute resolution process is as follows:

1. In the event of a Breach by either Party, the injured Party shall give written notice of Breach ("Notice of Breach") to the Party in Breach, specifying the Breach complained of by the injured Party. The Breaching Party shall promptly cure the Breach, or if the Breach cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, to promptly commence cure of the Breach.

Section 10. Waiver

A. In no event shall any payment by one Party or any acceptance of payment by the other Party hereunder constitute or be construed to be a waiver by City or District of any Breach of covenants or conditions of this Agreement or any default which may then exist on the part of City or District, and the making of any such payment or the acceptance of any such payment while any such Breach or default exists, shall in no way impair or prejudice any right or remedy available to City or District with respect to such Breach or default. The waiver by one Party of any Breach by the other Party of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a continuing waiver or a waiver of any subsequent Breach either of the same or of another provision of this Agreement.

Section 11. Independent Contractor

A. Under no circumstances shall this Agreement be construed as one of agency, partnership, joint venture or employment between City and District. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that it neither has, nor will give the appearance or impression of having, any legal authority to bind or commit the other Party in any way.
