BACKGROUND

On November 21, 2019, Vice Mayor Jones was invited to the Digital Cities Survey Awards dinner at the Grand Hyatt in San Antonio, Texas. Acting in his official capacity, along with other San Jose officials from the Bay Area, he accepted an award on behalf of the City of San José. The dinner was paid for by the Center for Digital Government. While the City could reimburse the Center for Digital Government for the cost of the dinner, it was done as a gesture to foster a good working relationship between the City and the Center.
