Dear city of San Jose, and local Bay Area communities,

As the SF Bay Area is beginning, its Super Bowl clean up & review

Overall, it seems an important time in this country, to begin, a more open, comprehensive conversation, about mediation, negotiation, knowledge & best practices, at the local, state, and federal level. As it is my hope, these conversations, between all sides, can become a more regular part, of local & international u.s. dialogue, in the next few years.

It should be a helpful reminder, that from this past fall 2025, and from the previous year, the mayors of San Francisco, San Jose, and the president of Mexico, have all proven that mediation & dialogue, about best practices, and our better human ideals, has simply offered, a respectful good reasoning that the current Trump administration, has been willing to listen to, and has been agreeable with.

I hope all the preparations, and post clean ups, of the Super Bowl & World Cup preliminaries, in the SF Bay Area, in 2026, can continue to be about best practices, and our better human ideals. As this can help facilitate, more open, positive conversations, about our better human reasoning & public policy making, with the many visitors & dignitaries, from around the world, that will be visiting the SF Bay Area in 2026.

sincerely,
blair beekman
