Please state why you want to become a member of this Board or Commission including specific objectives which you would work toward as a member. If you are applying for the Board of Fair Campaign and Political Practices, please indicate any familiarity or experience you may have with campaign laws.

I would like to become a member of the Human Services Commission because of what I believe I can bring to the commission as a member. The City of San Jose works hard with anti-discriminatory laws and initiatives of equal opportunity, however human services issues such as children and teenagers' issues with mental health are best tackled by someone in-touch with the teenage, high school, and adolescent community. As a member of the Human Services Commission I will work hard to advocate for the issues facing minors in San Jose with respect to the immigrant community and the general populace.

Supplemental Questions

Have you ever attended a meeting of the Commission(s) to which you are applying?

Yes No

Would you be available to attend meetings at the scheduled time?

Yes No

Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

I have never served on a commission or board before.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

I am qualified for this position because I have a wide range of experiences that would make me a very effective commissioner. As a member of Leland High School's Associated Student Body (student government), I deal with balancing different demographics and considering all of their interests. I was recently appointed the Captain of Outreach, a position which I had spent the past two years working towards by creating school events to accommodate all members of the school. On a micro level, I have already been working with the issues of different people groups on campus, and it is directly applicable to the macro level that is the Human Services Commission. As well as my campus outreach work, I am also no stranger to City Hall and all of the procedures of Boards and Commissions, as I am currently an Intern for the Office of the City Clerk. Through this experience, I am very knowledgeable on the process of local politics and public policy. I will not be a passive member of the commission if appointed, which can be accredited to my extensive experience in speech and debate. Through Leland High School's number one nationally ranked program, I have grown comfortable speaking in front of large audiences of adults and voicing my opinion on politics in speaking events such as Public Forum debate and International Extemporaneous Speaking. I truly believe that all of my experiences and activities line up perfectly to the role of commissioner on the Human Services Commission.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

My understanding of the purpose of the Commission is the promotion of human rights and advancement of all peoples in San Jose regardless of race, gender, age, sexual orientation, or disability. The Human Services Commission works to ensure that there are opportunities for everyone and to address issues that prevent that.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

Immigrant rights: many immigrants in our community do not feel comfortable in this country and the commission should advocate for their advancement. Teenage opportunities: I believe that the commission should work towards more opportunities for teenagers in poverty in a educational and job training sense. Diversity in STEM: In the capital of Silicon Valley, the commission must address the microaggressions and prejudices that stagnate diversity in our technology companies.

I believe that everyone has a right to dignity, respect, opportunity and access. Unfortunately in this country, the degree to which the aforementioned innate rights are received is dependent on your socio economic status. I believe that everyone should have equal access and opportunity and if they don't, we should collectively be working together to account for that difference. This is why I volunteer with the African American Community Service Agency, this why I advocate for open space. By becoming a member of this Board I will continue to fulfill my life's work and make a positive impact on my community for all no matter what they look like, where they come from, if they're American or not. Supplemental Questions

Have you ever attended a meeting of the Commission(s) to which you are applying?

Yes No

Would you be available to attend meetings at the scheduled time?

Yes No

Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

Currently I serve as the Board of Directors Chair for the African American Community Service Agency (AACSA) in San Jose. As Chair I did with a number of issues particularly related to diversity, protecting the rights of children, youth, and families; advocating for healthy relationships; and building the wealth of families. I am a leader. When I see something that needs to be improved, I'm going to find a way to fix it. That includes learning, networking with individuals, leveraging others knowledge, and actually creating a plan, event, or action that has an impact.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

To ensure that policies and business practices reflect the diverse City of San Jose and allow everyone no matter their race, ethnicity, gender, or sexual status to have equal opportunities and access when it comes to environmental sustainability, open space, unalienable rights, education, career/profession, housing choices, and more.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

1. Polluted Waters - working with NGOs and the SCVWD to reduce water pollution. 2. Supporting Homeless students - there are a number of students from kindergarten to college that are unfortunately homeless. This needs to be addressed with a full action plan and action goals to make sure students have what they need to succeed. It's difficult to focus when your hungry. 3. Reduction of Open Space in Downtown San Jose. In downtown, as the City is spearheading it's approval process for development, its also taking away open space in downtown from the ground level to the sky. The reduction of open space in the area needs to be evaluated to see if it is or will effect residents way of life.

Question applies to Human Services Commission

I meet the requirements for one of the Special Eligibility Seats on the Human Services Commission. I am:

A Disability Service Provider or representative of the disabled community.

Question applies to Human Services Commission

If you indicated you meet the requirements for a Special Eligibility Seat on the Human Services Commission, please provide a short background as to how you meet those requirements.

My disabilities fall under the Americans for Disabilities Act

I would like to say . . .

I'm a passionate person, I know it's important not only to hear people but to truly listen to what they're saying. Too many times we as a nation have been in a reactive mode when it comes to human rights or falling short on our promises, I want to be part of the board to make sure all voices are heard and to unite people. Thank you in advance for considering my application.

Please state why you want to become a member of this Board or Commission including specific objectives which you would work toward as a member. If you are applying for the Board of Fair Campaign and Political Practices, please indicate any familiarity or experience you may have with campaign laws.

I deem it critical for every representative body to include a wide variety of perspectives, values, backgrounds, and experiences. To my understanding, the City's boards and commissions are tasked with serving and representing the interest of the public at large by gathering and analyzing public input. Therefore it is of the utmost importance that to the extent possible, every community is represented within the various boards and commissions in order to elevate issues and narratives that may otherwise go unidentified and unaddressed. As a young black immigrant woman, I rarely see representation of women of color and in particular, black women, in positions of leadership. This means that often times issues concerning my community are often not amongst mainstream discourse, which evidently fails to empower us. Moreover, as a recent graduate, many of my peers are quite disenfranchised with all forms of government, as government is perceived to not well represent the concerns and interests of young people. Likewise, I see very few young people involved in their local governments, or any level of government. As someone who identifies with various segments of the population who are not often included in the dialogue pertaining to public and communal interest, I would really love the opportunity to step up and to be a voice to my generation, to women of color, and to immigrants, as these voices often go unheard and it's high time we all play our part in further integrating these voices into any discourse regarding public interest. One of my main passions pertains to girls and women's rights and empowerment, and I am wholeheartedly inspired by the role that girls and women can play as change agents and equal contributors to the economic, social, and cultural fabric of their communities. I did a lot of work with anti-sexual assault initiatives in college, while serving as a member of the Student and Presidential Committee on Sexual Assault, as a Sexual Assault Peer Advocate who underwent rigorous training to be a direct resource for anyone who had experienced sexual assault, dating violence, stalking, or harassment, and needed a confidential place for them to process their feelings, talk about their options, understand their rights, and feel empowered to make decisions that feel right to them. While in college, I also interned at the National Organization for Women where I developed and launched a college campus activist toolkit that would provide hundreds of campus leaders with resources on how to foster a safer and more welcoming college community for every member. Upon my relocation to the Bay Area, I joined the Board of Directors for an organization called About-Face, which seeks to arm girls with the knowledge and tools they need to fight back against a culture that diminishes and disempowers them. I also joined the Board of Directors for an organization called Next Door Solutions to Domestic Violence, a nonprofit that offers innovative prevention and intervention services pertaining to domestic violence. As such, I would want to elevate these specific issues within my role as a member--combatting violence against women, and trying to foster a safer city.

Please state any other information which you feel would be useful in reviewing your application

I've always been quite passionate about learning and leadership. My earliest form of leadership was when I was high school and I had the wonderful privilege of serving on the Mayor's Youth Council (MYC) for the City of Boston. MYC connects youth who are committed to improving their communities to civic participation in government. Similar to the responsibilities of the county's boards and commissions, MYC was also tasked with representing the interests of the public, in this case the "public" being Boston youths. I really enjoyed my experience working with the Mayor's Office and having the opportunity to solicit feedback from young members of my community and relaying these to the Mayor's Office, and have the voices of my community represented. I believe that 10 years later, as a 23 year old, I am yet again faced with the incredible opportunity of representing the concerns and interests of a community that I have been living in for nearly two years. However, as someone who is occupying multiple identities that are still not yet well represented in government at all levels, I seek to prioritize giving voice and visibility to these marginalized voices.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

As a general body, I believe the purpose of a city commission is to work within the capacity of an advisory board, acting as an intermediary between the residents and the City of San Jose, ensuring that the concerns of the residents are raised to city officials and that all the diverse voices of the community are heard and represented. To that, the commission's members play a very important role in elevating the needs of the community and offering a platform for the community at large to have an input on active issues facing their communities. More specifically, the Human Services Commission is tasked with defending and executing the San Jose Human Rights Policy and taking into consideration all matters affecting human rights within the City. The commission does a lot of the behind the scenes work to bring to the forefront violations against human rights, such as gathering public input, soliciting feedback, conducting research, and making recommendations to the City Council. Because issues pertaining to human rights affects all residents, I consider this particular commission to be one that plays a very crucial role in helping cultivate a safer and more equitable city that works for all residents, and in ensuring that each resident's rights and civil liberties are both protected and accounted for.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

-Responding to immigrant needs amidst federal action to undermine their rights and civil liberties. -Human trafficking -Violence against women (domestic, sexual assault, rape, exploitation)

Please describe your experience in working with governmental agencies.

Throughout my career, I have worked with governmental agencies related to Title X, EEOC, ADA, and others.

Question applies to Parks and Recreation Commission

As a Parks and Recreation Commissioner, how would you handle a situation where you have a volatile Community group which is opposed to a staff proposal?

I would listen to the opposing views, identify and understand the facts, seek to provide meaningful solutions, and encourage continuous dialogue.

Question applies to Parks and Recreation Commission

Can you provide examples of major public policy issues that you have been involved in and what your role was in the issue?

Employees had to move out of Silicon Valley due to the high cost of living. I was part of team that advocated with local city officials to pass a rent control ordinance that helped some of these employees to relocate closer to work.

Question applies to Senior Citizens Commission

What is a major issue facing San José's older adults and what do you see as the Commission's role in this issue?

Develop programs that would address a wide variety of Senior Citizen needs, including home support services, cost of living, palliative care, the use of the internet, and the need for professional and well-trained caregivers.

Question applies to Senior Citizens Commission

Please describe a leadership role you have assumed within the last five years.

Please state why you want to become a member of this Board or Commission including specific objectives which you would work toward as a member. If you are applying for the Board of Fair Campaign and Political Practices, please indicate any familiarity or experience you may have with campaign laws.

I started college as a business major, only finding my passion for sustainability and the environment after taking an exceptional class with an amazing professor my freshman year. What started as an elective course, quickly turned into a major change and an altered way of viewing the world around me. My science degree gave me the tools to understand the complexity of the problems we've created and the effects we will in turn have to face, but the people I've met and the stories I've heard push me to believe the future is anything but bleak. Being from San Jose, CA but going to school in Fort Collins, CO offered me the unique experience of viewing sustainability efforts at both a large and (relatively) smaller municipality. While in Colorado, I was active in the local government's efforts to reach the goals of their City Plan in both social and environmental sustainability initiatives. It was inspiring, to say the least, to be part of a team that put so much effort and love into what they did, each and every day. I am eager to transition to my hometown, and to continue my fight for a brighter, greener future for all.

Supplemental Questions

Have you ever attended a meeting of the Commission(s) to which you are applying?

Yes No

Would you be available to attend meetings at the scheduled time?

Yes No

Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

I was recently an intern with the Social Sustainability Department of the City of Fort Collins, CO. I was assisting the City Grants & Community Partnerships Coordinator (Adam Molzer, a reference listed) with the 2018 Federal Grant competitive process, working directly with the Human Services Commission as well as the Affordable Housing Board. I communicated and worked with nearly 50 non-profits as they applied for a portion of around 3 million dollars in grant money. The allocations were awarded based on how well the projects and programs aligned with the City's Sustainability Strategic Plan as they move towards their 2020 goals. One of my most rewarding experiences to date, I was able to see how my efforts directly impacted the community around me.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

Extremely driven, I've worked hard to prove myself in all capacities and exceed expectations. I feel a strong connection to the community around me, and want to be a part of the positive change that San Jose is making. We are leaders of technology and innovation, and consequently I believe we have a responsibility to not only our community, but other communities that look to us as an example. I am compassionate, empathetic, and determined to make the world a better place in any way I can.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

The purpose of the Commission is to gather information and make recommendations to City Council on a number of matters pertaining to human rights.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

Affordable childcare Building an inclusive community (disabled persons, minorities, marginalized groups)
Connecting the community to the outdoors/Getting people out and involved in the community

Question applies to Human Services Commission

If you indicated you meet the requirements for a Special Eligibility Seat on the Human Services Commission, please provide a short background as to how you meet those requirements.

I would like to say . . .

I think that younger generations are generally not as active in their local government and don't actively seek opportunities to get involved. Yet, they have strong opinions about what's wrong in the community they live in and how the local government addresses certain issues. I think being younger, I can provide a unique voice and insight into a portion of the community not commonly heard.

I have had Epilepsy since I was 12 years old, and worked in a wheelchair the entire time I worked for the CSJ. Check my files. It was a requirement. I talked them out of the helmet they first wanted me to wear, explaining that no one would believe some one in a helmet had the "brains" to explain anything to them. I had tried a helmet once and bus drivers spoke loudly because they thought I was retarded. Didn't want this to happen to the City. The first wheelchair supplied had a seatbelt also. While a a city employee I spent time serving on a county commision (Disabilty Advisory Commision) for the County. I recall serving two terms. When I called to verify, I was told that info from the 90s was destroyed. I was told that Blanca Alvarado reappointed me in 2005. I was never asked or sent a letter, therefore, never knew I was on the commission.

Supplemental Questions

Have you ever attended a meeting of the Commission(s) to which you are applying?

Yes No

Would you be available to attend meetings at the scheduled time?

Yes No

Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

I was on a County Commission appointed by Blanca Alvarado as described above for two terms in the 1990s. I did not know I was reappointed, and did not attend, therefore was unappointed due to lack of attendance.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

While in college I served as a State Representative from California to the Canal Zone. I currently serve Atria as the Ambassador that Registers new residents to vote.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

to advise San Jose City Council

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

My knowledge on issues is personally stronger on issues facing the handicapped/disabled population as I live in a Senior living population which is filled with largely a Sr/disabled population.

Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

Served on the Board of Directors for the Silicon Valley Independent Living Center, 2010-2013. Chair, Resource Development Committee, SVILC, 2010-2013 Chair, VTA's Committee for Transportation and Mobility Access, (Newell elected chair, have served on the committee for the last year or so. *Note: recent election flipped me with my Vice-Chair. Now hold this seat.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

Hands-on experience with boards, committees and commissions. Have worked in the non-profit sector since graduating from SJSU. Lived and worked with people with disabilities and those on low income. have worked with folks of all ages, races, etc. Am comfortable working with people on all aspects of social justice.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

The purpose of the commission is to review, regulate and advise on the policies, practices, procedures, etc. that govern all the different housing options in the Santa Clara County.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

More accessible affordable housing that is universal in design, access to quality affordable transportation, and access to health coverage for all- child and adult alike. All three of those items affect the quality of life and also have profound effects on how families live and work in San Jose and Santa Clara County- with out these key components, many would not be able to live or work here. We are in the heart of the Silicon Valley.
