SUBJECT: Emergency Interim Housing Siting Policy

RECOMMENDATION

Direct the City Manager to prepare and return to the City Council with an Emergency Interim Housing Siting Policy.

BACKGROUND

On September 29, 2021, the Rules and Open Government Committee approved “Compassionate San Jose - Bold Housing Solutions,” a memorandum submitted by former Mayor Liccardo and Councilmembers Peralez, Jimenez, Foley, and Mahan.¹ The memorandum directs the City Manager to take several actions related to the delivery of Emergency Interim Housing Communities (EIHCs) throughout the City. The authors reiterate direction provided by City Councils to “equitably distribute” both EIHCs and Bridge Housing Communities (BHCs):

As directed since 2017, the development of these sites should be equally distributed between all ten council districts, with each council district housing a least one. Homelessness is felt in every single one of our districts. Staff should prioritize council districts that have not yet housed an EIHC or BHC.

While the direction in the memorandum was incorporated and approved by the City Council on November 2, 2021,² the “equitable distribution” element has never been formally codified. We
