Re: Item 3.5, REAL coalition member support for Charter Commission Equity Proposals

Dear Mayor Liccardo and City Council:

This letter was prepared by the Silicon Valley Council of Nonprofits, in consultation with the Race Equity Action Leadership (REAL) coalition.

REAL Coalition

The REAL community of nonprofit leaders and allies has been meeting since June 2020 to use our positional power to advocate for a more racially-just and equitable society; to establish a peer network of leaders committed to fighting white supremacy and systemic racism in ourselves and our institutions; and to hold each other accountable to the promises we made in the Nonprofit Racial Equity Pledge. The REAL coalition is broadly representative of the nonprofit community including human and community services, behavioral health and health, arts and culture, domestic violence, older adults, food distribution, education, environmental, farming, legal, disability rights, LGTBQ rights, ethnic, immigrant rights, housing and homelessness, criminal justice reform, urban planning, and intermediary organizations, and others. Over 125 organizations have participated in the REAL coalition.

Please consider this letter signed by 42 nonprofit and ally members of the REAL coalition in your deliberations regarding the equity proposals from the San José Charter Commission. We ask Council to vote yes to place on the November 2022 ballot a charter amendment that would:

 Require that the City have a commission to govern ethics and municipal elections and campaigns;

- Allow San José residents who are not qualified electors and/or U.S. citizens to serve on the City's Planning Commission, Civil Service Commission, and Salary Setting Commission;
- Update Charter language to be gender neutral; and
- Require the City Council to adopt a statement of values around social equity, as well as creating standards and assessment processes for equity, with the language proposed by Councilmembers Jimenez, Cohen, and Foley.

These Charter amendments will add to the emerging culture of racial equity within the City of San José and ensure that the entire community understands the equity values that our City holds.

Comment for Council Meeting item 3.7 Greg Holsen < Tue 6/14/2022 1:30 PM To: City Clerk < [External Email] You don't often get email from Learn why this is important

It is unbelievable to me that the city would even consider allowing non-citizens to serve on key commissions. The Planning Commission weighs in heavily on all land-use issues. The Salary Setting Commission recommends salary rates for the Councilmembers and Mayor. Why not just have individuals from Newark, New Jersey serve on our committees. The mayor of San Jose does not value the talent, passion or support of the residents of San Jose as is evident in designing the logo of San Jose in Colorado (because as we all know San Jose is some backwater city with no design ability - they don't even have the worlds largest design tech company headquartered in San Jose { Adobe} which could have done this with local talent). No, apparently we have to stock our commissions with people who have illegally entered our country and are not citizens because just like logo design talent, this city shows its resentment for its own residents to fill critical roles in determining key aspects of San Jose's future. It is this lack of judgment that makes the San Jose City Council laughable at times instead of making clear decisions that affect the quality of life in San Jose. You are saying that people who don't live here (non-citizens by definition) or people who have illegally entered our community when so many others have gone through the proper processes to citizenship are relevant to making choices that affect the very day-to-day development of our community and other factors that affect taxes and services. We need better leadership than this to have even considered this entry onto the Agenda. As I watch the parks wither and die and considerations like high-density housing next to single-family homes, we can clearly see the priorities of San Jose have been lost to wokeism. Can you please get back to looking at how we can staff the park departments so they can take care of our parks instead of wasting important time figuring out how you will allow the people of New Jersey, Birmingham, Chicago or any other non-citizen to make decisions for our community? This council could do more and be better if you would actually focus on what is good for San Jose residents instead of these types of ridiculous proposals. Respectfully,

Grea Holsen
