PUBLIC RECORD _____

Dear Ms. Taber,

My name is Paula and have lived in San Jose my whole life. I am so sad at the prospect of moving, but because of the chaos coming from the planning department, that is where I am headed. There are some beautiful, well planned cities elsewhere that have elected officials who listen to what the people want and need.

I am very concerned about the proposed Catholic Charities development on Snell and Blossom Hill. I am not against developing south San Jose because I think it is inevitable. But to take a very busy commercial corner and plop a huge, out of scale, low income/homeless apartment building is ridiculous. There is no place here for such a large building. We met to discuss the development of that corner of our city a couple years ago and came up with a plan that is now being changed. Why have a plan if it means nothing? There was no mention of a such a large apartment complex there and especially no mention of homeless housing.

ADDRESS THE HOMELESS: It breaks my heart to see my fellow citizens living in a pile of rubbish on the side of the road. However, taking people who are mentally ill or addicted to drugs from the encampment under the overpass and moving them to an apartment complex is just moving the problem to a new location; the problem still exists! An apartment won't change someone. It is that simple, you have to have faith in people that they will change when they are ready. Can we come up with a better idea to help these people? We should be working on decent drug rehab facilities and mental health care, not building huge "projects" in the middle of a family neighborhood, JUST DOWN THE STREET FROM A HIGH SCHOOL! This Catholic Charity proposal will bring chaos to our area, drag our neighborhood down, and stagnate the homeless.

HERE'S AN IDEA: How about putting in a senior housing complex with retail and commercial space on the first floor and apartments above. Our seniors have worked hard and are being ignored, while the homeless are getting all the attention and free housing.

Are we going to turn San Jose into a giant homeless encampment, strewn with garbage, or are we going to lift up and educate the drug addicts and mentally ill, so they find their place in a beautifully organized city?

Thank you for reading this,

Paula Bassett

SAN JOSE WATER COMPANY
NOTICE OF GENERAL RATE CASE APPLICATION FILING
APPLICATION NO. 18-01-004

On January 4, 2018, San Jose Water Company (SJWC) filed its General Rate Case (GRC) Application 18-01-004, seeking authority from the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) to increase rates in 2019, 2020 and 2021. As part of its decision-making process, the CPUC is interested in hearing from you, and invites you to provide your comments on any aspect of the company's operations including proposed rates, service quality issues or any other matter related to the request that may be of concern to you.

Under SJWC's proposal, rates for each year would become effective on January 1 for that particular year. Rate increases for 2020 and 2021 are derived using an escalation procedure and inflation factors provided by the CPUC. The factors used to calculate rates in these years will be the most recent inflation forecast at that point in time. In its application, SJWC has requested to increase its rates by actual inflation without further notice to customers. This means that if inflation is greater or lower than that assumed in the application, rates for 2020 and 2021 may be higher or lower than shown in this notice, and no further notification would be required to adjust the rates accordingly.

CUSTOMER IMPACT

SJWC filed a GRC application requesting authority for an increase in revenues of $34,288,000,000 or 9.76 percent in 2019, $14,232,000 or 3.70 percent in 2020, and $20,582,000 or 5.17 percent in 2021. SJWC also seeks authority for: (1) recovery of $13,612,774 for its balancing account via a $0.2973/ccf customer surcharge beginning January 1, 2019, until recovered and (2) recovery of $7,112,350 for its memorandum account via a monthly surcharge to customers of $0.1553/ccf beginning January 1, 2019, until recovered.

A balancing account tracks the incremental over and under collection of rates, surcharges, and other expenses for future recovery by the utility, such as purchased water and groundwater extraction charges. A memorandum account tracks specific expenses assigned for possible future recovery, such as water quality and conservation expenses.

If approved by the CPUC, the following tables provide a comparison of SJWC's requested rate increases for Schedule 1 and Schedule 1C Mountain Districts by meter size. The Mountain District is located in the hills above Los Gatos, CA.

The rates shown on your water bill may vary from the rates shown above due to temporary credits or surcharges in effect.

PRIMARY DRIVERS OF RATE INCREASE

SJWC has been providing safe and reliable water service for more 150 years and many of the facilities used for water service have reached the end of their lives. SJWC is proposing this rate increase due to escalating operating expenses related to water quality and safety requirements, as well as significant system infrastructure replacement requirements as the water system ages over the next several years. In order to maintain safe and reliable water service, infrastructure improvements such as water main and well replacements, enhancements to pumping stations and well fields, as well as water tank upgrades and replacements throughout SJWC's 140 square miles of service area are necessary.

CPUC PROCESS

As a party of record, the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA) will review this application. ORA has a multi-disciplinary staff with expertise in economics, finance, accounting and engineering. Other parties of record will also participate in the CPUC's proceeding to consider this application. For more information about ORA, please call (415) 703-1584, e-mail ora@cpuc.ca.gov or visit the Office of Ratepayer Advocate's website at <http://ora.ca.gov/default.aspx>.

This application will be assigned to an Administrative Law Judge (Judge) who will determine how to receive evidence and other related documents necessary for the CPUC to establish a record upon which to base its decision. Evidentiary hearings may be held where utilities, consumer advocacy groups, and other entities which have been given official status as "parties," will present their testimony and may be subject to cross-examination by other parties. These evidentiary hearings are open to the public, but only those who are parties may participate. The hearings and documents submitted in the proceeding, become part of the formal record that the Judge relies upon when writing a proposed decision to present to the Commissioners for their consideration.

After considering all proposals and all evidence presented during the formal hearing process, the assigned Judge will issue a proposed decision, determining whether to adopt SJWC's request, modify it, or deny it. Any of the CPUC's Commissioners may sponsor an alternate decision. The proposed decision, and any alternate decisions, will be discussed and voted upon at a scheduled Commission Voting Meeting.

Subject: Charities Housing Proposal

Good Afternoon, I am a resident of the Blossom Valley neighborhood. I have recently been informed that Charities Housing wants to develop the ACO Furniture site at . Charities Housing is planning a 160 unit low income housing project for this site.

This same proposal was made three years ago. At that time, neighbors and Councilman Ash Kalra worked together to engage the community to fight the proposal. Their efforts were successful and the plan was withdrawn. The proposal was a bad idea three years ago and it is a bad idea now. There is no benefit to the surrounding neighborhoods from this proposal and there is a potential for increased crime and blight and a reduction of property values.

This development is out of scale for the neighborhood and does not fit with the Urban Village concept discussed by neighbors two years ago. Many District 2 residents attended meetings to discuss the concept of an Urban Village Plan for the Blossom Hill/Snell area. Neighbors supported mixed use residential areas; revitalized retail and commercial areas and open spaces and parks. The ACO Charities Housing project is not in conformance with any of the suggestions from the summaries of those meetings.

I doubt you would find many residents who would object to a housing project that included affordable housing for teachers and public safety professionals, with some low income units included, and upscale retail and restaurants and open spaces.

Please support us in our efforts to stop this project.

Thank you,
Renee Roche

Subject: a letter from Blair Beekman. Wednesday January 17, 2018. _____ What can be the many words to describe, the enjoyment in learning.

Dear city government of San Jose,

As you can probably guess, I can become pretty excited, in the words of the IPA study session, of January 16, 2018.

Besides learning and very much trusting, the selection of the new IPA.

And how new IPA, Aaron Zissen, wants to work, toward the future of San Jose,

I am very much excited by the idea, that both city council, and the police chief, expressed an interest, and apologies, for not being more open and communicative.

Hopefully I can write, with many, short, little letters, at this time, with a few ideas from the study session. But as a part of, 'the ever-fickle everyday public', I may tire out, or get side-tracked easily.

A condition everyone can suffer from, at some level.

So in the name of concentrating, I hope you can be patient, and like the things I will have to offer.

And when I write, with a few thoughts and ideas of my own, about the IPA study session process.

I am actually going to work, for the goal of enjoyment, at this point.

A sometimes lofty, and difficult idea, to work towards.

But an interesting idea, in how we can work together, at this time.

Please write back, how I can possibly improve, the level of enjoyment, for this process.

And in my writing, conversations, and ideas.

What can be an enjoyment, and not a chore, can be of help, in how we can all better communicate, with each other, in 2018.

Sincerely,
Blair Beekman
