I am an ardent believer in the City of San Jose's Envision San Jose 2040 General Plan, "Building a City of Great Places." Short of serving on the city council, I believe the City of San Jose Planning Commission has the most influence on ensuring the city is living up to the demands of the General Plan. Given my education in land use economics, experience supporting Project Management at PG&E, and community engagement in my neighborhoods (Buena Vista Neighborhood and more broadly Midtown SJ), I believe I am uniquely positioned to serve in this capacity. I would seek to have the city hold true to ALL of the GP, not simply cherry pick policies that serve the issue at hand or proposals that "fit the box."

Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

I have served on several non-profit boards as well as the SJ Unified School District Measure H Citizen's Bond Oversight Committee, per my experience listed. I am familiar with committee and board service, agenda and meeting procedures, and would faithfully execute such duties on this commission as well.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

In addition to academic (economics) and vocational training (project management and project governance), I have taken many hours of housing-related training as a member of the California Apartment Association. While the Planning Commission does not deal with housing policy, per se, much of what I have learned is relevant to understanding the duties and requirements of rental housing providers, and the regulatory requirements and burdens under which they operate.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

The purpose of the commission is to apply the policies of the SJ General Plan and other applicable policies and guidelines toward approving or denying applications and proposals submitted to Planning, Building, and Code Enforcement which require review or approval by the Planning Commission.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

Urban Village amenities financing commercial/industrial to residential conversions (an ongoing issue) outreach and noticing policies for neighborhoods (implementation of Council Policy 6-30)

As someone who lives in San Jose and works with people from all areas of our city, it is clear that San Jose is on the cusp on becoming one of the nation's great cities. Whether it is the revitalization of the Downtown Core with San Pedro Square, the redevelopment on the San Carlos Corridor from blight and brothels into mixed-use apartment complexes that offer more affordable and environmental housing options, to the recent partnership between the public and private sector to establish the Creative Center of the Arts in Japantown, the changes to San Jose over the past few years has been nothing short of remarkable. I believe that these changes can be traced directly to the careful planning that went into Envision San Jose 2040. The success of this plan, however, depends on its continued implementation in city-wide urban planning decisions. I want to be on the Planning Commission because I believe in Envision San Jose 2040 and I believe that I have the skills to be a good steward for San Jose's future. As someone who works in the legal system, I am acutely aware that rules and plans are only effective when fairly administered. To that end, my primary objective as a Planning Commissioner would be to faithfully implement the General Plan and any directives from City Council and to incorporate the policies set forth in Metropolitan Transportation Commission's Plan Bay Area 2040 Final Plan to ensure focused, sustainable growth in San Jose. Within that framework, I would work towards the following specific objectives: (1) Fair, predictable and fact-based decisions that advance the goals of the General Plan as they apply to each district within San Jose – specifically, this would be improving the jobs to housing ratio; intensifying the density of housing near transportation hubs; and improving public transportation and infrastructure; (2) Legislation and policies to ameliorate housing shortages in San Jose and improve the availability of affordable housing; (3) The approval of projects that enhance the quality of life of neighborhood residents (e.g., improve walkability scores, reduce blight, increase availability of amenities, reduce burden on taxpayer resources); and, (4) Clear drafting and vetting of any recommended changes to rules, policies, and ordinances. I believe that urban planning decisions will either transform our city for the better or will task future generations to solve problems that could have been addressed now. I want to be on the Planning Commission so that I can help shape the future of my community for the better.

Please state any other information which you feel would be useful in reviewing your application

If appointed to the Planning Commission, I would strive to represent all residents within our city and to bring fairness, common sense and creative problem-solving to urban planning decisions. I have worked with victims and community members throughout our county and I believe that every person should have a voice in the future of their neighborhood and that Planning Commissioners must be sensitive and attune to the needs of each District. To that end, not only would I spend the time to thoroughly review Staff reports and any materials presented, I would also go the extra mile to view the sites of proposed projects in person and I would listen carefully to any public comments so that I could make informed, neighborhood-specific decisions. As someone who has applied for planning permits, I understand the importance of practical, predictable, and prompt feedback in the planning stages of a project. As an attorney, I also understand that rules are only as good as those who apply them and the implementation of the General Plan depends on Planning Commissioners who will adhere to the principles set forth therein. More broadly, I believe that when planning decisions are made in a consistent manner based on fact rather than whim, it creates public trust, enhances government integrity, and increases the likelihood that each project will bring us closer to the goals set forth in Envision San Jose 2040. As a Planning Commissioner, I would strive to make these goals a reality.

Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

Since my high school days as Vice President of Student Council, I have worked to make my community better by taking on leadership roles in various groups and organizations. Currently, I am the Chair of the Law-Related Education (LRE) Committee for the Santa Clara County Bar Association (SCCBA), a position that I have held for the last three years. I came into this role during a time when there was a significant amount of conflict among our key partners that was jeopardizing the programs we sponsor. As Chair, I stepped up the communication, strengthened our relationships with our community partners (the Judiciary, the County Office of Education, Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office, lawyers, teachers and students) and I developed written procedures to clearly define our respective roles and responsibilities. The SCCBA recently recognized my commitment to the Santa Clara County Mock Trial program with Annual Johnny Gogo Award. In addition to serving as the Chair of the LRE Committee, I serve on the Judicial Evaluation Committee for the SCCBA. As a Committee member, I am responsible for interviewing references and evaluating candidates for judicial appointments. I applied for this position because I believe that it is critical to have fair, well-qualified decision-makers on our bench and I wanted to have a voice in their selection. I also participate in the Santa Clara County Superior Court Community Outreach Committee, which develops and promotes partnerships within the justice system. Prior to becoming involved in the Santa Clara County Bar Association, I was the co-Chair of the Pro Bono Committee for the Barrister's Association of San Francisco. In that role, I developed programs to increase the level of volunteerism among attorneys. While working at Latham & Watkins in San Francisco, I was selected as the associate representative on the Diversity Committee, a position that I held for several years before I left the firm. It would be an honor to continue my commitment to community service on the Planning Commission.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

I am qualified to be a Planning Commissioner because my work experience, community involvement and personal interests have given me a well-rounded perspective on land use. As set forth below, I have the analytical abilities to make fair, well-informed decisions; the legal skills to make practical and feasible recommendations on legislative proposals; and the experience to manage emotionally charged situations. My legal training has taught me to make decisions by impartially applying the facts to the law. While many may think of an attorney as an advocate, much of my career has been focused on evaluating the legal merits of a given situation. From when I started out as a clerk writing judicial opinions, to my work in environmental litigation where I needed to understand the science behind contamination, or as a prosecutor evaluating whether the evidence rises to the level that criminal charges are appropriate, I have always approached the law from the perspective that one should understand the facts and the law first before making a decision and that any decisions should be consistent with the law. My work as a prosecutor has put me into contact with hundreds, if not thousands of people from all walks of life, many of whom are often at odds with what I am trying to accomplish. From negotiations with passionate defense counsel, to gathering information from reluctant witnesses, to prosecuting cases where emotions run high, I am skilled at diffusing difficult situations, communicating with members of the public and I understand that the system works best when people feel heard and when people in power have the courage to make decisions, even if those decisions are unpopular. If I were appointed to the Planning Commission, I would evaluate each individual case on its merits, not to advance a personal agenda. In my 14 years of practicing law, I understand how important it is for the language of our laws to clearly effectuate the intent of its drafters. I have spent countless hours analyzing the language of regulations, codes and statutes. I understand that small differences in drafting can create huge unintended consequences and that there are certain types of documents or statutes where flexibility is needed, such as a General Plan, and others, such as a Rent Control Ordinance or specific guideline on zoning, where it is important to be crystal clear. I have developed an understanding of land use and the planning process through my personal interest in real estate and my last two years as a Deputy District Attorney in the Real Estate Fraud Unit. On a personal level, I have managed several major renovation projects as an owner-builder and I am in the process of obtaining approvals for a complete rebuild of a home. For each of my projects (2 in San Francisco, 1 in San Jose and 1 in Los Gatos), I directly interacted with the Planning and Building Departments to obtain permits. I can read plans, I understand how to interpret and apply zoning regulations, how to comply with design guidelines, and, more generally, what is involved in planning and executing a construction project, including how to accommodate or mitigate neighbors' concerns. In the Real Estate Fraud Unit, I was recently tasked with evaluating whether various development projects within a local jurisdiction complied with the Subdivision Map Act, the Municipal Ordinances and more specifically, with the City's General Plan. Through this inquiry, I met with concerned citizens, gathered information from the City and discussed the development projects at issue with the City Attorney and then applied the information that I had gathered to the City's General Plan and specific planning ordinances. While other applicants may have more in-depth experience in land use, I am confident that my combination of personal and professional experience has given me the analytic skills, ability to communicate with the public, and sufficient subject matter expertise to manage public hearings and to make well-reasoned decisions as a Planning Commissioner.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

The purpose of the Planning Commission is quasi-judicial in that it implements the General Plan through urban planning decisions and quasi-legislative in that it serves as an advisory body to City Council. In addition to making decisions on certain permits, such as Conditional Use permits, the Planning Commission makes recommendations to City Council on the adoption or amendment of the General Plan, redevelopment plans, and other land use and redevelopment regulations; the adoption of the Capital Improvement Program; and, to undertake any other duties recommended by City Council.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

(1) Increasing the jobs to housing ratio to increase the tax base and reduce the burden on public services;
(2) Increasing the pipeline of affordable housing; and (3) Increasing the density of housing, public amenities within walking distance and public transportation options in every district in San Jose

Question applies to multiple boards

I would like to say . . .

San Jose is a city of tremendous resources and opportunity. Those resources and opportunities, however, have not always been allocated equally among the City's diverse residents. As the national divide between the fortunate and less fortunate increases, it is all the more important that all residents of San Jose have a voice in their local government and that no neighborhood is left behind. We are strongest when we are community - when everyone has a safe place to live and congregate, when families can afford to put a roof over their head, and the city has a strong tax base to support public programs and services. Envision San Jose 2040 has the potential to create an incredible community for all its residents and I want to be part of shaping the future of San Jose.

I have a strong interest in the future of San Jose and believe we are at a critical point in which land use decisions will determine the future economic vitality of our region. Having worked in public policy in San Jose for most of my career, I have a strong desire to not only see the best decisions made and goals achieved, but to also be a part of the process. With my background and knowledge I feel a certain duty to find a way to be a part of this process, and will work to uphold the adopted general plan, and associated policies, that road map the future of San Jose.

Please state any other information which you feel would be useful in reviewing your application

My background, academic and professional, includes a good deal of experience in land use. At SJSU I even had classes taught by city staff in land use, and have worked on many complicated land use issues while in D7 (Comm Hill, 2500 Senter, etc.). This will give me unique insight and ability to not just technically evaluate issues, but to also anticipate and respond to community/neighborhood concerns.

Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

I have not served on a city commission or board. I have served on and staffed a number of non-profit and volunteer commissions and boards.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

I have experience working with a number of stakeholders and interests related to land use. My current position requires me to work with city councils, and planning commissions, across our county and would provide me with unique insight into not just how other cities are dealing with land use issues, but to also have a regional point of view on how large land use decisions impact Silicon Valley. This experience goes from present all the way back to when I first moved to San Jose and managed the land use and infrastructure committee at the San Jose Chamber of Commerce. However, much of my experience comes from working directly with neighborhood organizations, and stakeholders when dealing with large land use and permitting issues in District 7.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

To evaluate land use decisions and applications for consistency with General Plan and city policies. I generally feel it is the commission's role not to make policy, but to ensure that the General Plan is adhered to and the city's land use goals achieved.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

The challenge San Jose faces is balancing solutions to a severe housing crisis with a need to make land use decisions that promote fiscal responsibility. However, I wouldn't suggest it is the PC role to make policy decisions on these issues. When evaluating issues that do come before the planning commission it is important to evaluate them for 1)consistency with general plan 2)adequate mitigation of environment impacts (including traffic, noise, environment, etc.), and 3)ensure any proposed amendments to the GP are consistent with council policy and the city's strategic vision.

I would like to say . . .

I really am interested in serving because of my desire to be a part of San Jose in some way, and believe the planning commission would be the best use of my experience and knowledge.

It is no secret that we are a financially challenged city in comparison to other cities in the Bay area. We are in the middle of one of the most prolific financial ecosystems and times in the world, yet we are broke. In the distant past, short sighted leadership decisions created more housing than jobs producing companies. I fully understand why our General Plan is a jobs first approach. While I recognize it will take years to heal this imbalance, it will also take a Planning Commission that continues to embrace the General Plan. If that continues, we will have the money to pay for more police and fire fighters, start maintaining our roads and start to fill the needs of our City in more meaningful and significant ways. Furthermore, as a resident of the city and with strong family roots here, I care to join the effort and make our City a great place to live, work and play.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

The Planning Commission does not set policy, it exists to enact policies and decisions the City Council has adopted. The PC should grasp the staff interpretation of the project compared to the General Plan. The PC should listen to the community perspective and concerns. But all decisions should align with the General Plan.

I would feel an immense honor to be of service to the City of San Jose. As a native SJ resident, I want to contribute to achieving the following objectives: 1) equitable environmental and physical planning and development; 2) ensure the protection of quality of life in SJ via the General Plan, Zoning, and other tools; and 3) further strengthen the public participation process in all communities during the CEQA/ EIA process of development projects.

Please state any other information which you feel would be useful in reviewing your application

As an environmental scientist, my commitment is to provide an objective analysis with integrity and an interdisciplinary approach. I lived in San Jose during my entire life in different disadvantaged communities within both District 3 and 5. Moreover, I have experience working collaboratively through SJSU with numerous neighborhood associations and environmental organizations.

Have you ever attended a meeting of the Commission(s) to which you are applying?

☒ Yes ☐ No

Would you be available to attend meetings at the scheduled time?

☒ Yes ☐ No

Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

I only have experience speaking at meetings as a member of the public.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

I have ten years of experience teaching courses for the Department of Environmental Studies at SJSU: both the substantive and procedural requirements per the CA Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and environmental impact assessment. Furthermore, I provide pro bono workshops for community and environmental advocates, and government agencies through out the SF Bay Area.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

The Planning Commission functions both as an advisory and approval board to the City/Council for various land-use requirements in the planning process such as the following: General Plan/Zoning amendments, reviewing/advising on development projects, and other legalities per CEQA (approving EIR's etc). In addition, the seven member body is responsible to function as an appellate body on certain Planning Director's actions/approvals.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

1) Since the implementation of SB1000, providing equitable protection of both the environment and health will be an ubiquitous issue in San Jose. 2) Currently in 2018, the California Natural Resources Agency proposed to add, amend, and to adopt regulations implementing new Guidelines for the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA). Thus, the City has the responsibility to educate not only the decision-makers, but also the public of these updates. 3) To fully implement current local, state, and federal laws with a balance for economic growth, environmental protection, and an equitable quality of life in all neighborhoods.

My skills also include submitting written CEQA comment letters on the scientific analyses, thresholds, and environmental laws/regulations on numerous development projects in San Jose. Thus, my cumulative experience as a resident includes volunteerism, advocacy, and technical expertise. Thank you!
