Classroom Activities

Read "Marisol McDonald Doesn't Match"	Names are important. Work together as a class to come up a terrific name for your classroom imaginary pet.	Marisol can say "Thank You" in English and Spanish. How many other languages can you say Thank You in?	Discover items in nature that match. For example, a green leaf and a green flower.
Talk about the vocabulary words on the "Idea Sheet."	What shapes can you put together to make new shapes?	Mix it up! Take crayons or paint and have fun mixing colors together to create more colors!	Combine more than one game together. How about soccer playing pirates? Arr, Matey!
Talk about the library. Encourage the children who have visited to share their stories.	Create a new recipe. For example, pretend to bake a cake. What ingredients would you include in your cake?	Mix and Match your five senses. Close your eyes and touch an object. What is it?	Have a Mix-Match Day at school. Green polka dots and purple stripes?
	Can you balance a book on your head and walk at the same time? Jump on one foot and sing the ABC's?	Mix and Match your five senses. Close your eyes and touch an object. What is it?	Marisol is Peru and Scotland. Locate different countries on a map. What country is your family from?
