OPENING REMARKS: COUNTY EXECUTIVE AND CITY MANAGER

Jeffrey V. Smith, County Executive, introduced County Staff, and City Manager, Dave Sykes, introduced City staff.

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH UPDATES

Toni Tullys, Director, Santa Clara County Behavioral Health Services Department (BHSD) opened with an overview of the BHSD System programs, noting it is the largest behavioral health plan in the Bay Area. She provided a presentation relating to outreach and mental health services for homeless persons, including crisis services. Additional discussion included Public Safety and Behavioral Health Coordination and Assisted Outpatient Treatment (AOT).

Mayor Sam Liccardo opened the floor for questions, and Council Members asked questions of staff regarding assessment needs.

Director of Office of Supportive Housing, Ky Le, continued the presentation with Behavioral Health and Homeless Outreach, including supportive housing considerations. Director of Housing Jacky Morales-Ferrand provided an overview of the City's homeless outreach activities.

Director of Office of Supportive Housing, Ky Le followed up with a discussion of facility-based and specialty mental health programs. She stressed a need for increased coordination, optimization and strategy development, and a continued focus on permanent housing strategies. She continued with a discussion of Adult Treatment Court and Other Specialty Courts.

Chief Garcia expressed gratitude for the County's collaboration with the City regarding assistance for the mentally ill.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING UPDATES AND COLLABORATIVE EFFORTS TO ADDRESS HOMELESSNESS

The Board and Council deferred the item to the next joint City/Council meeting.

President S. Joseph Simitian provided opening comments. The status of Laura's Law was discussed, including issues regarding the public guardian system, which provides support to strengthen this program. Staff responded to questions regarding suicide prevention policies.

PUBLIC COMMENT

The floor was opened for public comment.
