(a) The Deposit shall be held in escrow by Escrow Agent, upon the following terms and conditions:

(1) Escrow Agent shall deposit the Deposit in an interest-bearing account or accounts or invest the Deposit in a money market fund so long as the accounts are covered by FDIC Insurance. Escrow Agent shall deliver to Seller the Deposit (together with all interest thereon, if any) at and upon the Closing;

(2) If the Escrow does not close on the Closing Date because of any default by Seller or a failure of any condition precedent for the benefit of Buyer (including any such conditions that are also conditions precedent for the benefit of Seller) and Buyer has elected to terminate the Agreement rather than seek specific performance as provided in Section 8.3, or if there is a termination of the Agreement for any reason other than a default of Buyer, Escrow Agent shall promptly return the Deposit (together with all interest thereon, if any) to Buyer;

(3) In circumstances where a provision of this Agreement requires that the Deposit be returned to Buyer, Escrow Agent shall promptly return the Deposit (together with all interest thereon, if any) to Buyer, to the extent the Deposit or any portion thereof is then held by Escrow Agent; and

(4) If this Agreement is terminated in accordance with the terms hereof, or if the Closing does not take place under this Agreement by reason of the failure of either party to comply with such party's obligations hereunder, Escrow Agent shall pay the Deposit (together with all interest thereon, if any), to the extent the Deposit or any portion thereof is then held by Escrow Agent, to Seller and/or Buyer, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

If such written authorization is not given or proceedings for such determination are not begun within thirty (30) days after the date Escrow Agent shall have received written notice of such dispute, and thereafter diligently continued, Escrow Agent may, but is not required to, bring an appropriate action or proceeding for leave to deposit the Deposit (together with all interest thereon, if any), in court pending such determination. Escrow Agent shall be reimbursed for all costs and expenses of such action or proceeding including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, by the party determined not to be entitled to the Deposit, or if the Deposit is split between the parties hereto, such costs of Escrow Agent shall be split, pro rata, between Seller and Buyer, in inverse proportion to the amount of the Deposit received by each. Upon making delivery of the Deposit (together with interest thereon, if any), in the manner provided in this Agreement, Escrow Agent shall have no further obligation or liability hereunder.

Buyer shall not be entitled to any other credits, nor shall Seller have any obligations, in respect of the condition of the Property as of the Closing, except to the extent of any obligations expressly and specifically stated in Section 6.6(a), Section 7.1(a) or Section 7.7(b).

(b) The following shall be apportioned between Seller and Buyer at the Closing with respect to the Property as of 11:59 p.m. (Pacific Time) of the day immediately preceding the Closing Date, and the net amount thereof either shall be paid by Buyer to Seller or credited to Buyer, as the case may be, at the Closing:

(1) Real property taxes and assessments (or installments thereof) (as used in this Section 5.13, the terms “taxes and assessments” or “real property taxes and assessments” include any special taxes levied for a Mello-Roos community facilities district), provided that Buyer shall not be apportioned any real property taxes or assessments for which Buyer is exempt, but only if and to the extent that Seller is entitled by reason of the conveyance of the Real Property to Buyer to a refund of such taxes previously paid by Seller;

(2) Water rates and charges;

(3) Sewer taxes and rents;

(4) Deposits in Seller’s name that are on account with any utility company servicing the Property to the extent transferred to Buyer shall not be apportioned, but Seller shall receive a credit in the full amount thereof (including accrued interest thereon, if any);

(5) To the extent not otherwise apportioned pursuant to this Article 5, charges and fees due under contracts for the supply to the Property of heat, steam, electric power, gas and light and telephone, if any, in respect of the billing period of the related service provider in which the Closing occurs (the “Current Billing Period”) on a per diem basis based upon the number of days in the Current Billing Period prior to the Closing (which shall be allocated to Seller) and the number of days in the Current Billing Period on and after the Closing (which shall be allocated to Buyer) and assuming that all charges are incurred uniformly during the Current Billing Period (it being agreed that all deposits, if any, made by Seller as security under any such public service contracts shall be credited to Seller if such amounts remain on deposit after the Closing for the benefit of Buyer; provided, however, that Seller shall be entitled in its sole discretion to receive a refund of such security deposits directly from any such service provider without credit to Buyer). Calculations hereunder shall be based upon the most recent invoice rendered to Seller by the applicable service provider and, after an actual bill covering the period ending on the Closing is received, the apportionment of such charges hereunder shall be recomputed; and

(6) All other items customarily apportioned in connection with the sale of similar properties similarly located.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 5.13(b), any taxes or assessments paid at or before Closing shall be prorated based upon the amounts actually paid. If taxes and assessments due and payable during the year of Closing have not been paid before Closing, Seller shall be charged at Closing an amount equal to that portion of such taxes and assessments which relates to the period before Closing (as well as any taxes and assessments for any year before the year of the Closing), and Buyer shall pay such taxes and assessments before their becoming delinquent subsequent to the Closing Date. Any such apportionment made with respect to a tax year for which the tax rate or assessed valuation, or both, have not yet been fixed shall be based upon the tax rate and/or assessed valuation for the prior fiscal year. To the extent that the actual taxes and assessments for the current year differ from the amount apportioned at Closing, the Parties shall make all necessary adjustments by appropriate payments between themselves within thirty (30) days after such amounts are determined following Closing. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any supplemental taxes resulting from the change in ownership and reassessment occurring as of and after the Closing Date.

(d) If any refund of real property taxes is made after the Closing Date covering a period prior to the Closing Date, the same shall be applied first to the reasonable out-of-pocket costs incurred in obtaining same and the balance, if any, of such refund shall, to the extent received by Buyer, be paid to Seller (for the period prior to the Closing Date) and to the extent received by Seller, be paid to Buyer (for the period commencing with the Closing Date).

(e) Buyer will assume the Assumed Lease at the Closing. Base rent and any other amounts payable by the Lessee under the Assumed Lease (collectively, the "Rents") shall be prorated as of the Closing Date and be adjusted against the Balance in Cash on the basis of a schedule which shall be prepared by Seller and delivered to Buyer for Buyer's review and approval no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the Closing Date. Buyer shall receive at Closing a credit for Buyer's pro rata share of the Rents, additional rent, Lessee reimbursements, and all other payments payable for the month of Closing and for all other Rents and other amounts that apply to periods from and after the Closing, but which are actually received by Seller prior to Closing. Buyer agrees to pay to Seller, upon receipt, any Rents or other payments by any Lessee under the Assumed Lease that apply to periods prior to Closing but are received by Buyer after Closing; provided, however, that any such Rents or other payments collected by Buyer or Seller after the Closing for periods prior to the Closing shall be applied in the following order, but shall be treated separately for such allocation purposes: (i) first, in payment of such amounts owed by such Lessee for the month in which the Closing occurs, (ii) second, in payment of such amounts owed by such Lessee in the month immediately preceding the month in which the Closing occurs, (iii) third, in payment of such amounts due and owing by such Lessee for periods after the month in which the Closing occurs, and (iv) fourth, in payment of such amounts owed by such Lessee for any other periods prior to the month immediately preceding the month in which the Closing occurs. Each such amount, less any third party costs of collection (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) reasonably allocable thereto, shall be paid over as provided above, and the party who receives any such amount shall promptly pay over to the other party any portion thereof to which it is so entitled. The parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that Buyer shall not be legally responsible to Seller for the collection of any Rents or other charges payable with respect to the Assumed Lease or any portion thereof, which are delinquent or past due as of the Closing Date; but Buyer agrees that Buyer shall send monthly notices for a period of six (6) consecutive months following the Closing in an effort to collect any Rents and charges not collected as of the Closing Date; provided, however, Buyer shall have no obligation to institute litigation against any Lessee or declare a default under the Assumed Lease. Seller hereby retains its right to pursue each Lessee who is no longer a tenant of the Property or any part thereof as of the Closing Date for sums due Seller for periods attributable to Seller's ownership of the Property.

(f) The provisions of this Section 5.13 shall survive Closing.

(3) Such other closing costs, if any, not expressly provided for herein, that are customarily charged to buyers of real property for the county in which the Real Property is located.

Seller and its agents, contractors, consultants, attorneys, and representatives shall not be liable for any relief, including damages, rescission, reformation, allowance, or adjustments based on the failure of the Property, including amount of acreage, square footage, zoning, and environmental condition, to conform to any specific standard or expectation or any third party documents or information except to the extent arising out of the inaccuracy or breach of any of the Seller’s Express Representations.

(b) Buyer further acknowledges that Seller shall have no obligation to undertake the construction or completion of any on-site or off-site improvements of any kind or nature.

(c) Buyer further acknowledges and agrees that, except to the extent of Seller’s Express Representations:

(1) The Property is to be purchased, conveyed, and accepted by Buyer in its present condition, “AS-IS,” “WHERE-IS,” “WITH ALL FAULTS,” and that Buyer accepts the Property subject to all patent and/or latent physical conditions of the Property, whether or not known or discovered.

(2) Seller shall have no obligations whatsoever to undertake, repair or construct any improvements or facilities to, upon, or about the Real Property, or any portion thereof, or on any adjacent or other property, or to process any entitlements in any way affecting the Real Property, or any other property, after the Closing.

(3) Buyer's acquisition of title to the Property hereunder will be deemed to be Buyer's acknowledgment and agreement that it has investigated and has knowledge of all operative or imposed Laws and Regulations (including zoning and Environmental Laws, the regulations of the Environmental Protection Agency, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, the California Department of Fish & Game, and the California Regional Water Quality Control Board, and all applicable land use Laws and Regulations) to which the Property may be subject, and is acquiring the Property on the basis of its review and determination of the application and effect of such Laws and Regulations.

(4) Buyer acknowledges that, after the Closing, it is Buyer's responsibility as the owner of the Property to comply with any such Laws and Regulations, including any environmental and/or biological mitigation requirements.

(d) Except for Seller's Express Representations, Buyer has neither received nor relied upon any representations concerning such Laws and Regulations made by Seller, Seller's employees, Seller's agents, or any other person acting on behalf of Seller. Any agreements, warranties, or representations not expressly contained in this Agreement or the Seller Closing Documents shall in no way bind Seller.

(e) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Buyer understands and agrees that it takes the Property without any representations or warranties by Seller (except for Seller's Express Representations), or by any member, official, employee, or agent of Seller, regarding the existence, use, generation, manufacture, storage, transportation, release, or disposal of Hazardous Material and/or oil wells and/or underground storage tanks and/or pipelines on, under, or about the Real Property, or that the Real Property is or may be in violation of any federal, state, or local law, ordinance or regulation relating to Hazardous Material and/or oil wells and/or underground storage tanks and/or pipelines on, under, or about the Real Property including soil and ground water conditions. Buyer acknowledges and understands that it must perform its own "due diligence" with respect to all environmental matters relating to the Real Property, inclusive of any environmental audits or assessments, and that Buyer is not relying on any environmental audits or assessments performed by or on behalf of Seller and under no circumstances shall Buyer look to Seller for any liability, contribution, or indemnification with respect to any such matters.

(f) Buyer further understands and agrees that in the event it acquires the Property or any portion thereof pursuant to this Agreement, such acquisition will be done without any representations or warranties by Seller (except to the extent of the Seller's Express Representations) regarding the use, generation, manufacture, storage, transportation, release, or disposal of any Hazardous Material and/or oil wells and/or underground storage tanks and/or pipelines and/or other conditions relative to the Property or as to responsibility for any of the foregoing.

(g) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the foregoing shall not be construed as a waiver by Buyer of any claims that arise from Seller Retained Obligations.

Section 7.3. Release

At such time as it takes title to the Property and at all times thereafter, except as set forth below, Buyer releases Seller from all liability relating to the Property, including any claims, losses, or damages that Buyer may have against Seller with respect to the Property. Buyer expressly agrees to waive any and all rights which it may have under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code which provides as follows:

“A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.”

BUYER AND SELLER ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT THE FOREGOING PROVISIONS OF Section 7.2 AND Section 7.3 HAVE BEEN FREELY BARGAINED FOR BY THE PARTIES AND CONSTITUTE A MATERIAL CONSIDERATION TO SELLER FOR THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY AND BUT FOR THIS PROVISION SELLER WOULD NOT SELL THE PROPERTY TO BUYER.

Section 7.4. Representations of Buyer

(a) Representations of City. City hereby makes the following representations and warranties to Seller as of the Effective Date, which representations and warranties shall continue to be true and correct as of the Closing, as a condition to closing:

(1) City is a municipal corporation organized and validly existing as a charter city pursuant to its Charter and the Constitution of the State of California, and City has the full right and authority to enter into this Agreement and to consummate or cause to be consummated the transaction contemplated by this Agreement. (4) City's offer and decision to purchase the Property is and will be based upon its own independent expert evaluation of the Property and any other matters deemed relevant by City and its agents and advisors. Except for Seller's Express Representations, City has not relied upon any oral or written information from Seller, or any of Seller's employees, affiliates, brokers, agents, legal counselors, or other representatives. City further acknowledges that no employee, agent, broker, legal counsel, or other representative of Seller has been authorized to make, and that City has not relied upon, any statements or representations other than Seller's Express Representations.

(1) POST is a California public benefit corporation organized and validly existing as such under the laws of the State of California, and POST has the full right and authority to enter into this Agreement and to consummate or cause to be consummated the transaction contemplated by this Agreement. The person signing this Agreement on behalf of POST is authorized to do so.

(2) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by POST does not, and the performance by POST of its obligations under this Agreement will not, with or without the giving of notice, lapse of time or both, to the knowledge of Walter T. Moore, (i) conflict with any provision of any law or regulation to which POST is subject or conflict with or result in a material breach of or constitute a material default under any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of any enforceable agreement or instrument to which POST is a party or by which it is bound (including any judgment, decree, order, statute, injunction, rule, regulation or the like of a governmental unit which is applicable to POST), (ii) require the approval or waiver of or filing with any person (including any governmental unit, agency or instrumentality), or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any lien on any of its assets or property which could materially and adversely affect the ability of POST to discharge its obligations hereunder and complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(3) This Agreement has been, duly authorized, executed, and delivered by POST, and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of POST enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and other laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights, to the application of equitable principles whether or not sought, and to the exercise of judicial discretion in appropriate cases and to the limitations on legal remedies against cities in the State of California.

(5) POST is not a foreign person as defined in Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) Neither POST nor any beneficial owner of POST is, nor will they become, a person or entity with whom U.S. persons or entities are restricted from doing business under regulations of the OFAC of the Department of the Treasury (including those named on OFAC's Specially Designated and Blocked Persons List) or under any statute, executive order (including the September 23, 2001, Executive Order Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions with Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit, or Support Terrorism), or other governmental action.

Section 7.5. Buyer's Investigations

(a) By entering into this Agreement, Buyer certifies that it has performed its own thorough and independent investigation and evaluation of the Property and all other aspects of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and Buyer agrees that Buyer shall be charged with knowledge of all information which was acquired or reasonably could have been acquired through the use of all due diligence by Buyer as a result of such an investigation and evaluation. Buyer has determined, solely in reliance upon Buyer's independent investigation and evaluation of the Property and Seller's Express Representations (which will include the representation described in Section 7.5(b) as of the Closing), that the physical condition of the Property is acceptable to Buyer, including all soil and geological conditions of the Property and the presence or absence of any Hazardous Material in, on, under, or around the Property. Buyer has satisfied itself as to all present and future entitlements, zoning regulations, and other governmental requirements, site and physical conditions, title matters, and all other matters affecting the use, occupancy, value, and condition of the Property. Buyer specifically acknowledges that Buyer was not and is not relying on Seller to indicate the relative importance or materiality of any of the instruments, records, documents, and other information made available to Buyer for review, that Buyer shall make its own determination as to the level of scrutiny it applies to such instruments, records, and documents made available to Buyer, and that Buyer will act solely in reliance upon its own investigation and evaluation of such matters.

(b) At the Closing, Buyer shall warrant and represent to Seller that: (i) Buyer has then satisfied itself as to all present and future entitlements, zoning regulations, and other governmental requirements, site and physical conditions, title matters, the presence or absence of Hazardous Materials on the Property and all other matters affecting the use, occupancy, value, and condition of the Property; (ii) Buyer has not relied, and is not then relying, on Seller to indicate the relative importance or materiality of any of the instruments, records, documents, and other information made available to Buyer for review; (iii) Buyer has independently made its own determination as to the level of scrutiny it applies to such instruments, records, and documents made available to Buyer; and (iv) except to the extent of Seller's Express Representations, Buyer has acted and is then acting solely in reliance upon its own investigation and evaluation of such matters.

Section 7.6. Survival of Representations and Warranties

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement that may be interpreted to the contrary, the representations and warranties of the Parties set forth in this Agreement shall survive the Closing for a period of one (1) calendar year (“Survival Period”). No claim for a breach of any representation or warranty shall be actionable or payable unless written notice containing a description of the specific nature of such breach shall have been given to the other Party before the expiration of the Survival Period. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Section 7.6 do not apply to covenants of indemnity or defense or to covenants pertaining in any way to the condition of the Property following the Closing.

Section 7.7. Indemnities

(a) Buyer’s Indemnity. In addition to and without limitation of Buyer’s obligations set forth herein or in the Right of Entry Agreement, Buyer hereby agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold Seller and Seller’s directors, officers, shareholders, employees, affiliates, members, representatives, heirs, successors, beneficiaries and assigns harmless from and against any liability, cause of action, loss, cost, expense, claim or damages, including attorneys’ fees, which arise from events related to the Property occurring after the Closing Date, excluding any liabilities arising out of the Seller Retained Obligations, but including any liabilities arising from any construction, marketing, sale or use of any of the Property by or on behalf of Buyer, including improvements located on the Property. The foregoing indemnity includes: (i) bodily injury and/or property damage, including diminutions in value, including claims from third parties pertaining in any way to the condition of the Property or any part or parts thereof (no matter how caused), and including design or construction defects, whether such condition arose or first occurred before or after the Closing Date, where the injury or damage first occurred after the Closing Date; (ii) errors and omissions by Buyer and/or its contractors or subcontractors, and/or its professional soils, civil, geological, surveying, and engineering firms; and (iii) soils-related issues (including the presence of Hazardous Materials) caused by activities or releases occurring after the Closing Date; subsidence, slope failures, sinking, slippage, drainage, mudslide, landslide, over-watering, floods, changes to underground water resources or aquifers, or damages as a result of earthquakes or other acts of God after the Closing Date; and/or any environmental health issues caused by such events or activities after the Closing Date. The Buyer’s indemnification hereunder shall fully apply, without limitation, to any liability for Hazardous Materials placed on the Property after the Closing to the extent such placement is not caused by Seller. The Buyer’s indemnification hereunder shall not apply, however, to any liability, cause of action, loss, cost, expense, claim or damages to the extent arising from: (i) the active negligence or willful misconduct of Seller and/or Seller’s principals, members, or affiliate entities; (ii) Seller’s breach of Seller’s Express Representations; or (iii) Seller’s failure to disclose any material facts relating to the condition of the Property as and to the extent required under California law which failure first comes to the attention of Buyer following the Closing.

(b) Seller's Indemnity. Seller hereby agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold Buyer and Buyer's directors, officers, employees, affiliates, members, representatives, heirs, successors, beneficiaries and assigns harmless from and against any liability, cause of action, loss, cost, expense, claim or damages (regardless of when asserted or filed), including attorneys' fees, which arises from any injury, loss or damage to person or property to the extent such injury, loss or damage (i) occurred at the Property, (ii) arose from the negligence or willful misconduct of Seller and/or Seller's principals, members, or affiliate entities, and (iii) was actually incurred during Seller's ownership of the Property; provided, however, that in the case of injury, loss or damage involving Hazardous Materials, Seller's obligations under this Section 7.7(b) shall only apply to the extent the claims are the result of: (x) the Seller Retained Obligations set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) of Section 6.6(a); or (y) any third party claims relating to Seller's release of Hazardous Materials on the Real Property during Seller's ownership of the Real Property. For the purposes of this Agreement, personal injury or property damage shall not be deemed "actually incurred prior to the Closing", except to the extent of any material harm sustained prior to the Closing, and shall not be deemed to mean exposure to the extent harm later occurs. Seller's indemnification hereunder shall not apply to any claims for which Buyer has indemnified Seller under the Right of Entry Agreement or pursuant to Section 7.7(a) above, or to any claims arising from the active negligence or willful misconduct of Buyer.

(c) The indemnity obligations under this Section 7.7 shall survive the Closing and the recording of the Deed in perpetuity.

Section 7.8. Changes in Representations

If Buyer discovers prior to Closing that any of Seller's warranties and representations, though true in all material respects when made, have become untrue in any material respect through no fault of Seller, then Buyer, as its sole remedy, may either (i) accept a qualification to Seller's representations and warranties as of the Closing Date and complete the transaction contemplated by this Agreement hereof and thereby waive any rights to recover for breach of the representation and warranty; or (ii) elect to terminate this Agreement by delivering written notice thereof to Seller on or before the Closing Date, in which event this Agreement and the rights and obligations of Seller and Buyer shall terminate (except for any indemnity obligations of Buyer pursuant to the other provisions of this Agreement and except for any escrow fee owed to Escrow Agent which shall be paid by Seller, which obligations shall survive the termination of this Agreement), the Deposit and any interest earned thereon shall be returned to Buyer, and Seller shall pay Buyer liquidated damages as provided in Section 8.3. In the case where a representation is discovered to be untrue when made, or becomes untrue or incorrect due to the acts of Seller, then Buyer shall have the full range of Buyer remedies, as provided in Section 8.3.

Section 7.9. Procedure for Indemnification Claims. In the case of any claim asserted by a third party against one Party for which the other Party has an indemnification obligation under Section 7.7, written notice shall be given by the indemnified Party to the indemnifying party promptly after the indemnified party has actual knowledge of any such claim, and the indemnified party shall permit the indemnifying party (at the expense of the indemnifying party) to assume the defense of any claim or any litigation resulting therefrom; provided, that (i) the indemnifying party acknowledges its obligation to indemnify the indemnified party in writing; (ii) the counsel for the indemnifying party who shall conduct the defense of such claim or litigation shall be reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party; and (iii) the indemnified party may participate in such defense at the indemnified party's expense. Except with the prior written notice to the indemnified party, in the defense of any such claim or litigation, the indemnifying party shall not consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that provides for injunctive or other nonmonetary relief affecting the indemnified party or that does not include as an unconditional term thereof, the giving by each claimant or plaintiff to the indemnified party a release from all liability with respect to such claim or litigation. In the event that the indemnifying party intends to consent to entry of such judgment or settlement, or if the indemnified party shall in good faith determine that (a) the conduct of the defense of any claim subject to indemnification hereunder or any proposed settlement of any such claim by the indemnifying party might be expected to affect adversely the indemnified party's tax liability or (b) that the indemnified party may have available to it one or more defenses or counterclaims that are inconsistent with one or more of those that may be available to the indemnifying party in respect of such claim or any litigation relating thereto, the indemnified party shall have the right at all times to take over and assume control over the defense, settlement, negotiations or litigation relating to any such claim, the reasonable costs of which shall be borne by the indemnifying party. In the event that the indemnifying party does not accept the defense of any matter as above provided, the indemnified party shall have the full right to defend, at the indemnifying party's cost (so long as such costs are reasonable), against any such claim or demand and shall be entitled to settle or agree to pay in full such claim or demand. In any event, the indemnifying party and the indemnified party shall reasonably cooperate in the defense of any claim or litigation subject to this Section 7.9.

Section 7.10. Seller Covenants

In consideration of Buyer's entering into this Agreement and as an inducement to Buyer to purchase the Property, Seller hereby covenants that until the earlier of the termination of this Agreement or the Closing, Seller will:

- (a) maintain the Land (but not the Improvements) substantially in its current condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted;
- (b) keep in full force and effect the policy of casualty insurance it currently maintains with respect to the Real Property;
- (c) give Buyer prompt notice of the institution of any litigation, arbitration or administrative proceeding involving Seller or the Property of which it obtains knowledge prior to the Closing Date;
- (d) not enter into any new lease, or amend any existing lease or any Assigned Agreement, without the prior written consent of Buyer, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, although Seller, with prior written notice to Buyer, may in its sole discretion renew any existing lease for which such renewal is authorized by the terms of the existing lease;

(e) not enter into any agreement to convey the Property or any portion thereof after the Effective Date, and Seller will not voluntarily create or suffer any additional liens, encumbrances, covenants, conditions, obligations, burdens, easements, rights of way or similar matters affecting the Real Property, after the Effective Date which will not be eliminated prior to the Closing;

(f) not enter into any contract or agreement for the provision of goods or services to or with respect to the Real Property or the operation thereof unless such contracts or agreements can be terminated upon thirty (30) days' notice without penalty, or unless Buyer otherwise approves such contract in writing;

(g) not seek from any public entity approval of any development, building, improvement, subdivision, entitlement, zoning or land use designation, or other matter affecting the use and development of the Property; and

(h) cause the reconveyance of the Owner Deed of Trust, which reconveyance may be conditioned on the Closing.

ARTICLE 8 DEFAULT

Section 8.1. Default

A Party shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement if it fails to meet, comply with, or perform any covenant, agreement, or obligation on its part required under this Agreement, within ten (10) days after delivery of notice of the breach by the other Party. If notice is given prior to the Closing Date, the Closing Date shall be extended the date on which the cure period expires.

Section 8.2. Default by Buyer; Seller Remedies

If, after Seller has fully performed or is fully prepared to tender performance as and when required, the sale of the Property as contemplated hereunder is not consummated due to Buyer's default hereunder, Seller shall be entitled, as its sole remedy, to terminate this Agreement and receive liquidated damages pursuant to Section 2.4.

Section 8.3. Default by Seller; Buyer Remedies

(a) Default by Seller Prior to Closing. If the sale of the Property as contemplated hereunder is not consummated due to Seller's failure to deliver to Escrow any of the documents listed in Section 5.2, or due to any other default by Seller, Buyer's sole remedy shall be either (i) to terminate this Agreement and receive a refund of the Deposit plus the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.000) as full reimbursement of all out-of-pocket third-party costs, expenses and losses incurred in connection with the negotiation, documentation or implementation of this Agreement, or (ii) seek specific performance of Seller's obligations under this Agreement on the terms and conditions set forth herein without an adjustment in the Purchase Price (except as described in the next sentence of this Section) and any other equitable rights and remedies, so long as such action by Buyer against Seller shall be filed and served within thirty (30) days after the scheduled Closing Date. Notwithstanding the provisions of the immediately preceding sentence, if Buyer brings an action for specific performance in accordance with this Section 8.3 and such remedy is not available as to the entire Property because Seller has transferred title to a portion of the Property to a third party, Buyer shall be entitled to an equitable abatement in the Purchase Price to reflect its purchase of less than all of the Property. Buyer hereby waives all other damages for Seller's default prior to the Closing, including without limitation, any claim against Seller for damages of any type or kind, including without limitation, consequential or punitive damages but excluding (i) attorney's fees and court costs recoverable by Buyer or POST pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, and (ii) the recovery by Buyer or POST of any sums which an express term if this Agreement provides Buyer or POST is entitled to recover. Seller acknowledges and agrees that the Property is unique, that Buyer's remedy at law for Seller's default (including Buyer's option to seek the remedy described in this Section 8.3, if Buyer declines to seek that option, notwithstanding the acknowledgment below) is inadequate, that Seller's obligations under this Agreement are sufficiently clear and specifically enforceable, that there is adequate consideration for specific performance, and that the terms of the Agreement are just and reasonable. Accordingly, Seller agrees that Buyer may seek specific performance (without abatement except, and only to the extent, provided above in this Section 8.3(a)), without the necessity of proving the foregoing. IF ELECTED BY BUYER, THE REMEDY DESCRIBED IN CLAUSE (i) OF THIS SECTION 8.3 SHALL BE PAID BY SELLER TO BUYER AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT BUYER'S ACTUAL DAMAGES IN THE EVENT THAT THE SALE IS NOT CONSUMMATED DUE TO SELLER'S DEFAULT WOULD BE EXTREMELY DIFFICULT OR IMPRACTICABLE TO DETERMINE. THEREFORE, BY SEPARATELY INITIALING THIS SECTION 8.3, THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THE REMEDY DESCRIBED IN CLAUSE (a), IF AND ONLY IF ELECTED BY BUYER, HAS BEEN AGREED UPON, AFTER NEGOTIATION, AS THE PARTIES' REASONABLE ESTIMATE OF BUYER'S DAMAGES. BY THEIR SEPARATE INITIALING OF THIS SECTION 8.3, BUYER AND SELLER ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THEY HAVE READ AND UNDERSTOOD THE ABOVE PROVISION COVERING LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, AND THAT EACH PARTY WAS REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL WHO EXPLAINED THE CONSEQUENCES OF THIS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION AT THE TIME THIS AGREEMENT WAS EXECUTED.

(b) Default by Seller After Closing. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, after the Closing: (i) the maximum aggregate liability of Seller, and the maximum aggregate amount which may be awarded to and collected by Buyer for any breach of any representation or warranty under this Agreement or any documents executed pursuant hereto or in connection herewith, including, without limitation, the Seller Closing Documents (collectively, the “Other Documents”), shall not exceed two percent (2.0%) of the Purchase Price paid by Buyer at the Closing for the Property (provided that, such 2% cap shall not apply to any liability that arises as the result of (A) any breach of any of Seller’s representations and warranties set forth in Section 7.1 above which breach first comes to the attention of Buyer following the Closing, but only to the extent that such breach was intentional or the result of gross negligence; and (B) Seller’s failure to disclose any material facts relating to the condition of the Property as and to the extent required under California law, which failure first comes to the attention of Buyer following the Closing, but only to the extent the true facts were actually known by Seller, or such failure to disclose was intentional or the result of gross negligence); and (ii) no claim by Buyer alleging a breach by Seller of any representation and/or warranty of Seller contained herein or in any of the Seller Closing Documents may be made, and Seller shall not be liable for any judgment in any action based upon any such claim, unless and until such claim, either alone or together with any other claims by Buyer alleging a breach by Seller of any such representation and/or warranty is for an aggregate amount in excess of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) (the “Floor Amount”), in which event Seller’s liability respecting any final judgment concerning such claim or claims shall be for the entire amount thereof, subject to the limitation set forth in clause (a) above; provided, however, that if any such final judgment is for an amount that is less than or equal to the Floor Amount, then Seller shall have no liability with respect thereto. Any claim by Buyer against Seller for a breach of Seller’s representations or warranties must be brought within the Survival Period following the Closing.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 8.3(d): (i) if POST and Buyer both desire to exercise their rights and remedies hereunder they must do so in a single proceeding, provided that POST must have the prior written consent of Buyer to do so; (ii) POST and Buyer may not bring separate actions to enforce Seller’s obligations and POST’s and Buyer’s respective rights; (iii) Seller’s obligations to assign the Weyhe Option to POST and to convey the Property to Buyer may not be enforced independently of each other; and (iv) in no event shall POST’s exercise of its enforcement rights under this Section expand the scope of Seller’s obligations or Buyer’s or POST’s rights hereunder.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8.3(c): (i) if Buyer desires to bring an action to exercise its right and remedies hereunder but POST does not, Buyer may do so; (ii) if Seller has transferred title to the Property to a third party in violation of the rights of Buyer hereunder thereby rendering the remedy of specific performance unavailable to Buyer, and Buyer does not bring an action to enforce its other rights and remedies hereunder, POST may, with the prior written consent of Buyer, bring an action to enforce its right and remedies hereunder; and (iii) if the Closing occurs, Buyer and POST may each bring a separate action to enforce the obligations of Seller hereunder, provided that both Buyer and POST acknowledge and agree that if they bring separate actions to enforce the obligations of Seller hereunder and such actions are concurrently pending in the trial court, consolidation of such separate actions is appropriate and they will both take such actions (including, without limitation, executing stipulations) as may be required for Seller to have such separate actions consolidated (provided, however, that a court's denial of consolidation shall not affect the right of POST or Buyer to maintain its action).

Section 8.4. Non Liability

None of the trustees, members, managers, directors, officers, employees, shareholders, partners or agents of the persons and entities constituting Buyer, Seller, or entities constituting Seller, whether disclosed or undisclosed, shall have any personal obligation or liability hereunder, and neither Buyer nor Seller shall seek to assert any claim or enforce any of its rights hereunder against such party. The provisions of this Article 8 shall survive the Closing or earlier termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 CONDEMNATION

Section 9.1. Definition of Terms

The following terms used in this Article 9 shall have the meanings ascribed to them below:

(a) “Condemnation” or “Condemned” shall mean the exercise of, or intent to exercise, the power of eminent domain expressed in writing, or the filing of any action or proceeding for such purpose by any person, entity, body, agency or authority having the right or power of eminent domain (“Condemning Authority”), and shall include a voluntary sale by Seller to any such Condemning Authority, either under the threat of condemnation or while condemnation proceedings are pending, and the Condemnation shall be deemed to occur upon the actual physical taking of possession pursuant to the exercise of said power of eminent domain.

(b) “Minor Taking” shall mean that only a portion of the Land is Condemned and that such taking does not materially adversely affect the Buyer's plan for the Land, all as determined by Buyer in its reasonable discretion. In the event of a Minor Taking (as determined in Buyer's reasonable discretion), this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect as to the remainder of the Land, the Condemnation proceeds shall be paid to Seller, and the amount of Buyer's contribution towards the Purchase Price shall be reduced by an amount equal to such proceeds.

Section 9.2. Distribution of Award

If the Land or any portion thereof is Condemned (other than through a Minor Taking) before the Closing, Buyer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by written notice to Seller for a period of ten (10) days following receipt of written notice from Seller of such Condemnation. Failure of Buyer to give such notice of termination before the expiration of the ten (10) day period referenced in the prior sentence shall be deemed an election by Buyer not to terminate this Agreement. If Buyer does not terminate this Agreement, the award from the Condemning Authority shall be paid to Seller, the amount of Buyer's contribution towards the Purchase Price shall be reduced by the amount so paid to Seller, and Buyer shall acquire the remaining portions of the Property at the Closing as set forth herein. If all of the Property is taken through Condemnation before the Closing, this Agreement shall terminate, the Deposit and any interest earned thereon shall be returned to Buyer, and neither Party shall have any further obligation hereunder (except for any indemnity obligations of Buyer pursuant to the other provisions of this Agreement and except for any escrow fee owed to Escrow Agent which shall be divided equally between the Parties, which obligations shall survive the termination of this Agreement).

ARTICLE 10 BROKERAGE COMMISSIONS

Section 10.1. No Brokers Representing Seller

Seller has not dealt with any broker, finder or like agent in connection with this transaction. Seller hereby indemnifies and holds Buyer harmless from and against any and all claims for any commission, fee or other compensation by any person or entity who shall claim to have dealt with Seller in connection with this transaction and for any and all costs incurred by Buyer in connection with any such claims including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements.

Section 10.2. No Brokers Representing Buyer

Buyer has not dealt with any broker, finder or like agent in connection with this transaction. Buyer hereby indemnifies and holds Seller harmless from and against any and all claims for any commission, fee or other compensation by any person or entity who shall claim to have dealt with Buyer in connection with this transaction and for any and all costs incurred by Seller in connection with any such claims including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements.

Section 10.3. Survival of Brokerage Provisions

The provisions of this Article 10 shall survive the Closing or any early termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 11 MISCELLANEOUS

Section 11.1. Joint and Several Liability

(a) The obligations of the entities constituting Seller are joint and several. Buyer may, at its election, proceed against any or all such entities without the necessity of joining the others, although no such election shall vitiate the obligation of the entity against which Seller elected not to proceed (except such effect as may arise under any applicable statute of limitations).

(b) The obligations of Buyer and POST are joint and several. Seller may, at its election, proceed against either or all such entities without the necessity of joining the others, although no such election shall vitiate the obligation of the entity against which Seller elected not to proceed (except such effect as may arise under any applicable statute of limitations). Notwithstanding the foregoing, City shall not be liable to Seller for damages arising out of a default by POST in the performance of POST's obligations hereunder, and POST shall not be liable to Seller for damages arising out of a default by City in the performance of City's obligations hereunder.

City Manager
City of Salinas

Salinas, California 93901-2639

City Attorney
City of Salinas

Salinas, California 93901-2639

Re: Termination of Settlement Agreement re Coyote Valley Research Park

Mr. Corpuz and Mr. Callihan:

On September 11, 2001, the City of Salinas entered into a settlement agreement (“Agreement”) with the City of San Jose and Coyote Valley Research Park, LLC (“CVRP”) concerning the City of San Jose’s approval of a large campus industrial development in North Coyote Valley on property formerly owned by CVRP (“CVRP Property”). A copy of the settlement agreement is attached hereto.

We represent the most recent owners of the CVRP Property and, therefore, the successors to CVRP’s interests under the Agreement. These parties have decided not to pursue the campus industrial development project that is the subject of the settlement agreement and not to commence construction of any new buildings within the CVRP Property pursuant to Section 13.21 of the Agreement. Instead, on the date of this letter these owners conveyed title to the CVRP Property to the City of San Jose for conservation purposes.

We understand that the City of San Jose and its partners intend to use the CVRP Property as open space for purposes of providing natural flood control, groundwater protection, climate resilience, and habitat connectivity, while preserving the City of San Jose’s existing water supply facilities.

Re: Termination of October 18, 2000 Agreement for Establishment of the Conservation Partnership

Dear Ms. Brown-Stevens and Ms. Mackenzie,

On October 18, 2000, the Greenbelt Alliance and the Santa Clara Valley Open Space Authority (“OSA”) entered into an agreement (“Agreement”) with Coyote Valley Research Park, LLC (“CVRP”) concerning the City of San Jose’s approval of a large campus industrial development in North Coyote Valley on property formerly owned by CVRP (“CVRP Property”). A copy of the agreement is attached hereto.

We represent the most recent owners of the CVRP Property and, therefore, the successors to CVRP’s interests under the Agreement. These parties have decided not to pursue the campus industrial development project that is the subject of the Agreement, and not to commence construction of any new buildings in the CVRP Project pursuant to Section 9.20 of the Agreement. Instead, on the date of this letter these owners conveyed title to the CVRP Property to the City of San Jose for conservation purposes.

We understand that the City of San Jose and its partners, including OSA, intend to use these properties as open space for purposes of providing natural flood control, groundwater protection, climate resilience, and habitat connectivity, while preserving the City of San Jose’s existing water supply facilities.

Accordingly, please be advised that, as a result of the foregoing, the Agreement is automatically terminated as of the date of this letter.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
