

3.3 Food Distribution Contracts

San Jose City Council Meeting
August 4, 2020

Angel Ríos, Deputy City Manager, Emergency Operations Center (EOC) Ops Lead

Food Distribution Agreements

Organization	Scope of Work	Not-to-Exceed Amount	Impact
World Central Kitchen	Great Plates Delivered program using local restaurants to produce meals delivered to individuals at high-risk from COVID-19	$ 3,564,000	2,000+ meals/day, Monday through Friday
Team San Jose	Provide meals to unhoused individuals placed in temporary shelters	$ 1,894,800	Up to 3,000 meals/day
Hunger at Home	Provide meals to unhoused individuals placed in temporary shelters	$ 1,300,000	Up to 2,000 meals/day
The Health Trust	Provide meals to high-risk individuals in their homes	$ 930,060	Up to 286 meals/day
Deloitte Consulting, LLP	Augmented operations team, developed GIS survey tools, developed prototype technology solutions for restaurant ordering and delivery to vulnerable populations, staffed weekly policy meetings, developed transition plan and templates for transition to county, automated school meals ordering with Revolution Foods for adult, evening, weekend meals.	$ 498,000	Supported rapid scale of Food Branch, maximized efficiency and effectiveness of County transition, ensured ability to scale restaurant food delivery up to 60,000 meals per day, improved insight of meal shortages and surpluses, reduced ongoing staff time to place accurate school meal delivery.

3.3 Food Distribution Contracts

San Jose City Council Meeting
August 4, 2020

Angel Ríos, Deputy City Manager, Emergency Operations Center (EOC) Ops Lead