Dear community of San Jose, and city govt,

A thank you, to all of the efforts, of the IPA.

A thank you, that elected officials of San Jose, and the mayor, agreed to allocate, what may be, an additional, $800,000 +, to the IPA budget, to better review the issues, from the protest.

People in San Jose, may pride themselves, on being cool.

And maybe, quickly understood, the immediate, temporary ban, in San Jose, of rubber bullets.

But only 8 complaints, of rubber bullets, to the IPA, may be questionable.

sincerely,

Hello Council Members

My name is Brian Parkman and I am a resident of District Six. SJPD are not transparent and lack accountability. In January 2019 California passed AB 1421, legally requiring police departments to release incidents of police brutality and complaints to the public. SJ police have not complied with this law. Lawsuits filed against SJPD by Bay Area News organizations are forcing SJPD into minimal compliance. SJPD does not want to share body cam footage. They do not want citizen oversight boards. They do not want the IPA to have investigative power. SJPD do not want to share body cam footage. But they do want annual raises, and bog pensions, and excellent healthcare. San Jose police want to feed at the trough, but resist accountability at every turn. The SJPD Duty manual referred to in this memorandum must remove qualified immunity and other stipulations that protect police from public accountability. Given both recent and past incidents of police brutality it is absolutely necessary to have clear and present accountability into order to have safe communities.

Thank you for your time,
Brian Parkman

PUBLIC COMMENT OF Ladoris Cordell FOR SAN JOSE CITY COUNCIL MEETING: 18 AUGUST 2020

While I address my brief comments to the proposal concerning the IPA office, I want you to know that I am enthusiastically supportive of all of the recommended actions.

During the five years that I was the IPA, the office did the best it could to hold officers accountable for misconduct, but we always had our hands tied because when complaints were made, the police investigated themselves and made their own findings.

With this proposal, accountability for police misconduct takes a giant, and long overdue leap forward. It will be the IPA office, and only that office, that will investigate all complaints of misconduct ---courtesy, neglect of duty, bias-based policing, force, procedure, search & seizure, and conduct unbecoming--- all of them. And as importantly, the IPA will make the findings for all allegations of misconduct. No longer will the police police themselves in San Jose.

Here's just one example of what happens when the SJPD investigated complaints of misconduct: Of the 430 complaints alleging bias-based policing between 2010 through 2018, only one based on race was sustained, with the great majority of the complaints labeled "unfounded" by the Department.

So, this one change, if approved, will do a great deal to build the community's trust in holding police accountable.

I urge the council members and the community to support this proposal. It is not anti-police; quite the contrary, it is pro-accountability, which benefits us all.

Thank you.
