D. 1. (Cont'd.)

Public Comment: (1) Blair Beekman offered appreciation for the efforts of staff and urged inclusivity for lower income families. (2) Ed Alvarez noted accomplishments of the Latino Education Advancement Foundation and asked the City and partners to join in their efforts and increase investments to assist low-income students. (3) Caller “5140” suggested the option of trade school and community college for a practical education.

Discussion continued regarding job placement opportunities, exposing children to opportunities, providing a greater impact on ethnic groups and partnering with stakeholders.

Library Director Jill Bourne and staff responded to questions. Director of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services Angel Rios, Jr. spoke to a strategy of partnering with influential leaders in the community and urged their openness to offering opportunities for youth.

Action: Upon motion by Councilmember Pam Foley, seconded by Councilmember Maya Esparza and carried unanimously, the staff report on the development of College and Career Readiness Quality Standards was accepted for full Council consideration and adoption at the December 1, 2020 City Council meeting, and the update on the College and Career Readiness Initiatives was accepted. (5-0.)

2. Neighborhood Center Partner Program Update. (Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services)

Andrea Flores Shelton, Interim Deputy Director; Hal Spangenberg, Interim Division Manager; and Pauline Khek, Interim Recreation Supervisor provided an update on the Neighborhood Center Partner Program, including an Assessment and Maintenance of Facilities, inventory and COVID Pandemic response.

Public Comments: Blair Beekman spoke to the intrusion of surveillance technology and civil protections being availed to all.

Councilmember Sylvia Arenas asked that consideration be given to utilizing community centers, especially with impacts from COVID, with emphasis on underserved community’s economic recovery such as the Gardner Community, to bring back community centers that are essential to our neighborhoods, assisting with services such as food distribution and distance learning.

Councilmember Magdalena Carrasco asked that partnerships be enhanced to serve the community, such as those serving the Alum Rock neighborhood and MACLA, with private partnership investments and non-profits explored.

Director of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services, Jon Cicirelli responded to questions and noted that they are trying to match services with neighborhood needs. Staff noted the RFQ in question would need to go out in January.

Director of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services Angel Rios, Jr. spoke on coordinating responses to these issues prior to the budget process as noted below in “Action”.

Action: Upon motion by Councilmember Maya Esparza, seconded by Councilmember Sylvia Arenas and carried unanimously, the status report on the Neighborhood Center Partner Program was accepted, including direction to staff to find opportunities to leverage limited resources at existing community centers and communities with the greatest need, enhancing other programs as noted during Committee discussion; with staff to provide a report for the March NSE meeting, including an information memo and further discussion prior to that with budget proposals/implications of re-use contingent on results of the RFQ. (5-0.)

3. 2019-2020 Status Reports on Parks and Community Facilities Development Capital Improvement Program. (Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services)
