Please describe your experience in serving on a Commission or Board.

From 1999-2003 I was a resident of Riverside County, living in Riverside, California which is where I served as a member of the Human Relations Commission. During my tenure I represented the commission at various civic functions particularly on the Eastside. Specifically I served on the Police Review board and was also trained (via US Department of Justice-Community Relations Service) to facilitate a Study Circle. Hence I actually led a Study Circle involving the City of Riverside Police department, religious leaders and general members of the public. As a member of the City of San Jose Council Appointment Advisory Commission, we successfully reviewed many applications, interviewed and made sound recommendations (to City Council) of qualified candidates to fill vacancies on various Boards and Commissions.

Considering your experience and activities in business, labor, professional, social, or other organizations, indicate the experience, training, knowledge and/or skills which qualify you for appointment to the selected commission(s).

I possess over sixteen years of experience working in social services with diverse populations whom are seeking self-sufficiency via employment. I have superb analytical skills and I am an excellent interviewer who listens, communicates effectively and exercises sound judgment.

What is your understanding of the purpose of the Commission?

To review and evaluate matters affecting Human Rights and offer recommendations to City Council.

Please list three issues facing the City that you feel the Commission should address.

Affordable Housing Equitable Opportunity for Safety-Net populations Police Retraining and Retention
