Good Morning,

I support San José Spotlights request for communication regarding Solutions San José.

The attorney client privilege is being applied way too broadly. In the last few years, and even now we're learning more and more how critical it is for the government to operate transparently.

Thank you

Subject: We Support San Jose Spotlight's Request For Mayor Sam Liccardo's Emails To Solutions San Jose

[External Email]

We support San Jose Spotlight's request for disclosure of non-privileged emails between the mayor and Solutions San Jose. The group is not a city entity yet Liccardo sends emails on behalf of the group using his title as mayor. The City's claim that every email he sends to this third party is attorney client privileged is an over reach and runs counter to San Jose's and Liccardo's commitment to open and transparent government.

Hi,

I want to voice my strong support for San Jose Spotlight's request for emails and other electronic communications between Mayor Sam Liccardo and Solutions San Jose. The claim that all such communications are subject to attorney/client privilege stretches credulity to the breaking point; it's simply not believable. Moreover, it goes completely against the spirit of our government officials working for the public in a transparent manner that fosters a fully informed electorate. Stop this stonewalling and provide the requested comments. Failure to do so will doubly injure the public: not only will we not see information we need to understand what our mayor is up to, we will see our tax dollars wasted in the defense of what I trust will ultimately be an indefensible position of denying us access to these communications.

Highly Concerned,
Bob Durham

City Clerk:

Please let the Mayor, Vice Mayor, and the Rules and Open Government Committee know that it is beyond belief that all the eMails between the Mayor Liccardo and the Solutions San Jose Solutions organization could be protected by attorney-client privilege.

Please have this recorded as my public comment before the committee.

Dear City Clerk,

As a resident of San Jose for over 65 years and neighborhood leader I ask that all emails between the Honorable Mayor Liccardo and the San Jose advocacy and lobbyist group Solutions San Jose he formed be released immediately.

I suspect the formation of this relationship may be based upon the mayors work around to become a "strong" mayor verses the city manager approach we have today.

In the name of transparency and leadership these emails need to be released.

I agree with Spotlight that Major Liccardo's e-mails with San Jose Solutions should be available to the public to read. SJ Solutions is not part of the City and is actually a lobbying entity created by the mayor. This is in the interests of open and transparent government.
