(D) REPORTS TO COMMITTEE

(1) Police Athletic League (PAL) Update. (Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services/Police)

Director of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services, John Cicirelli introduced staff and noted the purpose of this presentation was to gather input from the NSE Committee, indicating it would be returning to Council in November for full discussion.

Acting Deputy Director of the Parks Division, Avi Yotam and Shannon Heimer, Division Manager for Parks Destinations, Events and Sports, presented the purpose of PAL, a background and timeline and continued with an explanation of its hybrid model during COVID. They responded to questions from the Committee.

Councilmember Magdalena Carrasco asked that staff explore historical placemaking opportunities, proud East Side history and how PAL fits into a bigger, diverse puzzle. She requested a multi-year plan with specific goals and a milestone matrix which would be provided on a quarterly basis.

Deputy Director of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services, Nicolle Burnham answered questions regarding a more holistic master plan, development of context and engaging the community.

Councilmember Sylvia Arenas asked that community members, as those through schools, be encouraged to provide their ideas for the master plan. Director of Public Works John Cicereilli noted that the Parks & Recreation Board is currently in flux, so functionality is not at its peak, and spoke to financial restrictions. Committee discussed next steps and needs of the Board.

Public Comment: Blair Beekman spoke on the significant contributions of Cesar Chavez and American labor leader and civil rights activist Dolores Huerta and their contributions to San José. He encouraged ending the SRO programs and policing of schools.

(D) REPORTS TO COMMITTEE

(1) (Cont'd.)

Motion: Upon motion by Councilmember Pam Foley, seconded by Councilmember Magdalena Carrasco and carried unanimously, the verbal update providing assessment and implementation of alternative operational models for PAL programming and facilities was accepted, with the inclusion that once the hybrid model is in place and an agreement solidified, a matrix be constructed outlining concrete goals and objectives, and a quarterly update be provided to the Neighborhood Services and Environment Committee. (5-0.)

(2) Update on Digital Literacy and Public Technology Initiatives. (Library)

Library Director Jill Bourne introduced the cross-departmental team aligned to offered service to the community.

Deputy Director of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services, Nicolle Burnham; Samantha Cramer, Education & Programming Services Manager; and Recreation Superintendent for PRNS, Laura Buzo, offered an update on Digital Literacy and Public Technology Initiatives being implemented in the San José Public Library and Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services departments, including the Coding5K Challenge, the Wonder Workshop pilot program, and device lending pilot programs. Deputy Director of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services, Nicolle Burnham, and Supervising IT Analyst Howard Yelding continued with public computer and Wi-Fi usage, remote program support, technology upgrades, and emergency digital inclusion efforts.

Library Director Jill Bourne spoke to the digital inclusion expenditure plan approved by Council, noting an update during the upcoming September 22 meeting of Council for a more robust conversation.

Public Comment: (1) Blair Beekman urged educating school children on accountability as it relates to digital inclusion, guidelines, and open public policy practices. (2) East Side Union High School Board Trustee member Lorena Chavez offered appreciation for the teams' work, inquired about East Side access and asked what they can do as a district to make sure their schools are connected. (3) A third speaker urged that kids should know this comes from taxpayers and is not 'free' and complained about Zoom connectivity.

Library Director Jill Bourne responded to questions regarding express check-out for vulnerable east-side communities, and she and Laura Buzo responded to types of demographics captured to understand efficacy of programs. Councilmember Sylvia Arenas suggested enacting a quality, standardized approach as new programs are rolled out and asked about coordination with the County Office of Education.

Action: Upon motion by Councilmember Sergio Jimenez, seconded by Councilmember Magdalena Carrasco and carried unanimously, the update on update on Digital Literacy and Public Technology Initiatives was accepted. (5-0.)

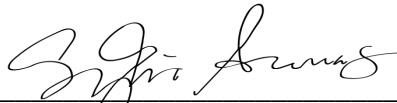

OPEN FORUM

Blair Beekman continued with acknowledgement of Cesar Chavez and Dolores Huerta and their contributions to San José, their activism and advocacy. He spoke on PAL as being a resource for community outreach.

A member of the public offered complaints about using Zoom and difficulties with teleconferenced meetings. He offered opinions on perceived ‘glorified welfare’ and complained of road maintenance in District 6.
