Joint recommendations from the City of San José Councilmembers were presented as follows:

Recommendations: Councilmember Raul Perez offered concurrence with Chairperson Chavez's recommendations, including direction as follows.

1. Concurrence with Supervisor Chavez's suggestion that a special meeting be organized on an annual basis.
2. Request that the San José Police Department explain the what the plan is for allocating staff to SAIU, FVU and SVU as we increase staffing
3. Ask that the housing and childcare work group come back to PSFSS in August consistent with Councilmember Arenas' recommendations.

Motion: Councilmember Sylvia Arenas moved approval of the previous recommendations as outlined above, including direction as stated below. Councilmember Raul Perez seconded the motion.

1. Direct the City Manager to work with the County to form a working group with community advocates, the stakeholders working at the Children's Advocacy Center, to identify the best approach and regional response to approve pediatric SART exams for children and bring to the next PSFSS Police Department Bi-Monthly report with ALL the barriers identified that prevent ALL child survivors from being referred to SART/Safe exams and bring recommended options for working through the barriers.
2. Direct the City Manager to partner with the County of Santa Clara to expand the existing City of San Jose Data Informed Sub-Standard Housing Study RFP scope and needs to a joint study that is more robust and attractive to academic and non-academic institutions to gather research and data to better inform the trend of sexual assaults.[in our region to learn if survivors and offenders are co-located in the same residence and relationship (for non-family members, and multi-family households).
3. Direct the City Manager review and explore the recommendations from the Housing Opportunities presentation for potential addition and prioritization to the City's Sexual Assault Response and Strategy Workplan and coordination with the County of Santa Clara to report back to the PSFSS Committee.
4. Direct the City Manager and (City Auditor's Office) to report the number of SART exam approvals and referrals to the bimonthly status reports at PSFSS committee on an ongoing basis.
5. Direct the City Manager to follow the leadership of the County of Santa Clara to expand the Sexual Assault Response and Strategy Workplan to the Gender-Based Violence Response and Strategy Workplan.
